I thank you for sending me the editorial referring to Mr. Rockefeller's address. I have no doubt that some conversation of yours with Mr. Atkinson was responsible for it, as well as for the very kind editorial he had a day or two previous with reference to my speech in Montreal. I had a short talk with Mr. Atkinson before I left for Chicago on Monday over a week ago. We are so wholly at one on the whole program of social reform that I cannot value too deeply his sympathetic interest in what I also am attempting along these lines.

I had a letter from Sir Wilfrid a day or two ago, expressing the hope that I would come back to Canada as soon as my present engagements here were completed. He speaks of the possibility of the arrangement being consummated of which I spoke to you. I have written Sir Wilfrid that I shall be glad to get back just as soon as I can finish up with present engagements.

Again thanking you for your kindness in forwarding the papers, and with kindest remembrances to Mrs. Larkin, Miss Larkin, and yourself, Believe me,

Very sincerely yours,
