Sir,

In compliance with the request made in your letter of the 17th December last, I have the honor to enclose herewith a copy of your account for supplies alleged to have been delivered under the contract of 1884 and not yet paid for.

As the copy of the contract is forwarded to you, you should make a careful statement of the facts of the case and send with it to the Department a copy of all correspondence between you and the contractor on the subject of their dispute.

Yours faithfully

John A. Macdonald
