It is the piece of paper I gave him and the typing was on the paper at that time. At 2100 hrs the Sgt came home and I told him what had happened, and I gave him the paper and asked him if he could read it, the Sgt then left the house and at 0005 hrs. 15 Feb 44 the door bell sounded, my father opened the door and the accused (Sullivan) was standing there and started to go up stairs but my mother stopped him, my father went up stairs to the Sgt's quarters ^{the Sgt} who had returned from the door bell ringing, the Sgt asked the accused (Sullivan) why he had come there from the landing of the first floor up, the Sgt ~~asked the accused (Sullivan) why he had come there~~ ~~the accused (Sullivan) came down to the door and ordered the~~ accused (Sullivan) out, the Sgt repeated his order three times and then said "I you don't get out I will kick you out" and the Sgt kicked him out, I then went to bed and at 0100 hrs 15 Feb the front door bell rang again, my father woke the Sgt, and I heard the Sgt ask who was at the door and I heard a reply to the effect that the Capt wanted to see the Sgt. I went to bed again. I was at home all evening, and no one entered the house other than those I have mentioned in my statement, The second soldier entered and went up stairs a few seconds after the accused (Sullivan) came to the house on his second visit
