I N the gracious words of the Countess Grey, many a grateful mother's heart will bless the ladies of the May Court club for the beautiful children's ward in the Protestant hospital which Her Excellency formally declared open yesterday afternoon.

The formal ceremony took place at 3.30. There was quite a large attendance of friends but many who were expected did not come and it was learned, too late to make amends, that about one hundred of the invitations sent out by the May Court club had not reached their
