

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS under the provisions of an Act respecting Steam Boilers, being Chapter 98 of the Statutes of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, passed in the tenth year of His late Majesty's Reign, it is amongst other things enacted that upon the recommendation of the Minister of Public Works, the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council may make such rules, regulations and specifications as may be deemed proper respecting the construction of steam boilers, including the materials to be used, the method of construction, the tests to be applied, the inspection of the boiler during its construction and before it is permitted to leave the place of construction, and generally such other matters as may secure a uniform standard of strength, safety and efficiency, and that the rules, regulations and specifications shall be published in the ONTARIO GAZETTE, and shall come into force and take effect at a date to be named by Proclamation.

AND WHEREAS it has appeared expedient to Our Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council that a Proclamation should now issue naming the first day of July, 1913, as the day on, from and after which the following and accompanying rules, regulations and specifications shall come into force and have effect.
