We Sell John Crossley & Sons' Tapestry, Brussels, Velvet and Axminster Carpets

We have been selling this line of Carpets for the past twenty-five years. They always give satisfaction.

The difference between cheap Carpets and John Crossley & Son's Carpets is three or four years' wear instead of ten or twelve—dissatisfaction instead of satisfaction. Does it pay? Will you buy our Carpets—good Carpets.

Regular $1.00 English Brussels Carpet Made and Laid on Your Floor at 83c a Yard

We bought this time from a Montreal jobber who wanted to unload, three thousand yards in all. This accounts for the great saving.

Regular 75c English Tapestry Carpet Made and Laid on Your Floor at 58c a Yard

A large range of elegant designs in this line, dark and light shades. They are well worth seeing. And other lines at reduced prices.

It will pay you to examine our Carpet and Curtain stock. Nothing equal to it in this part of Canada.

LATEST ENGLISH and NEW YORK EFFECTS

Once more our customers and others are to be shown the advantage of being in the New Method procession, or of getting in.

It's like this:—
The most popular Overcoat fabric the custom tailor will have this season is a rough faced, thirty ounce gray Overcoating, just announced by London fashion authorities as the latest and most correct thing for the season. It is certain to be much sought after by smart dressers. Custom tailors will ask and get extravagant prices for it.

Buyers in ready-to-wear clothes will wait until next season for it. As a rule, they needn't. We knew about this handsome and stylish line early. We have a supply of them in.

Raglan, Yoke and Box Back Styles

We think we have enough to take care of our customers and, may be, of other folks customers, too. We shall probably be the only merchants in Chatham to have it.

If you want any better let us know very promptly. We don't promise anything to those who wait.

PEOPLE DEALT DEATH-BLOW TO THE TAMMANY TIGER

Seth Low Elected Mayor in the Triumph of the Greater New York
Fusion Ticket—Richard Croker, Tammany Boss, Says it is his Last Campaign and Abdicates.

New York, Nov. 5.—Seth Low, former president of Columbia University, and four years ago the Citizens' Union candidate for Mayor of Greater New York, was today elected the second Mayor of New York by a plurality ranging anywhere from 30,000 to 40,000 and defeating Edward M. Shepard, of Brooklyn, the Democratic nominee. The campaign was an exciting one, and the vote, though somewhat less than the Presidential election a year ago, was the largest ever polled in a municipal contest in this country. In addition to the canvass for Mayor public interest largely centred in the nomination by the Fusionists of William Travers Jerome for District Attorney, and Mayor Robert A. Van Wyck, by the Democrats, for Justice of the Supreme Court. Both the candidates for District Attorney and Justice of the Supreme Court were voted for only in the territory contained in New York county. Returns received up to 11 p. m. indicate that Jerome had been elected by a comfortable plurality and that Mayor Van Wyck had been defeated, the latter running behind its ticket from 15,000 to 20,000. Returns also indicate the complete triumph of the Greater New York Fusion ticket—Chas. Vincent Fornes, the nominee of the Citizens' Union, and the Republicans, defeating Geo. M. VanHornsen, the Democratic nominee, for president of the board of aldermen. E. M. Grout, for the past four years Democratic president on the Borough of Brooklyn, now the Fusionist nominee for comptroller, has also been defeated by W. W. Ladd, jun., Dem.

WATCHING FOR RETURNS.
It is estimated that between 40,000 and 50,000 were massed in Broadway, between 22nd street and 38th street, to watch for the returns. According to the police and old residents of this city, the crowd was by far the greatest that ever congregated to watch for the returns of a local election. During the evening several hundred Columbia students appeared in the vicinity of 34th street and Broadway. They wore silk hats and carried Chinese lanterns on the ends of canes. They were jubilant that their former president had won and they celebrated the event by the blowing of horns and cheers for Mr. Low. They gave no trouble to the police.

MAYOR-ELECT LOW'S STATEMENT.
About 11 o'clock Mr. Low gave out a formal statement, in which he said:

"The outcome of this election is a splendid vindication of universal suffrage. From all parts of the city have come the votes that have rebuked the Tammany orgie of the last four years. All the patronage of the city and limousines have not availed against the aroused indignation of the people, and it is safe to say that absent government and government for private gain will not be seen again in New York city for many a day. This is no man's triumph, but it is the people's victory. The agencies that have brought it about are many. Those who labored so long and so patiently to bring about the successful fusion so loyally are entitled to the heartiest credit. For myself, I ask for the generous and constant support of the community in the great task to which it has summoned me, and I dedicate power that I have to its loyal service."

CONCEDE THE ELECTION.
Edward M. Shepard, at 10 o'clock tonight, publicly conceded the election of Seth Low, Fusion candidate for Mayor, by pluralities ranging anywhere from 30,000 to 55,000; Brooklyn Daily Eagle, the Evening and Morning World, the Evening Journal, the Tribune, the Times, the Herald and the Press.

Richard Croker, at 8:45 o'clock, conceded the election of Seth Low, Fusion candidate for Mayor, but Mr. Croker was not willing at that time to give up the county ticket. He said he was much disappointed at the Brooklyn vote, as he had expected Mr. Shepard to make a good showing there, it being his home borough. As to the causes for the defeat of the Democratic ticket, Mr. Croker said he was inclined to ascribe it to the large silent vote, and the fact that the people sometimes feel that they want a change.

The grand total on Mayor, 145 districts missing, for Greater New York is:—Low, Fusion, 268,318; Shepard, 239,914. 540 election districts of 887 in the county of New York show for District Attorney:—Jerome, Fusion, 108,881; Unger, Dem., 101,862.

CROKER ABDICATES.
Mr. Croker, Maurice Untermyer and Senator T. D. Sullivan were together at dinner during the night, and it is said on good authority that a little later Mr. Croker said this was his last political fight. Mr. Croker asked Senator Sullivan who he desired as leader. Senator Sullivan answered that John F. Carroll would be pleasing to him; then and there Richard Croker abdicated his leadership of Tammany Hall, and turned it over to John F. Carroll. The party proceeded to Tammany Hall, where John F. Carroll was waiting them. He was apprised of the purpose of Mr. Croker, but said nothing. He accompanied Mr. Croker to the Democratic Club in a cab, and going upstairs remained almost an hour closed with him. It was after this conference that Mr. Croker announced:—"This is my last campaign."

If Alderman McCoig will take the trouble and time to wait until I have put in separate items for each separate batch of local improvements since I came here, he will be able to ascertain the constant earth and each other item quicker than — well, quick.

"The argument on the sidewalk is not really worth answering. The sidewalks are under the supervision of the contractor until they are in a condition to be used. The Engineer has ordered the contractor to scrape off the top of the sidewalk on Fifth street and put on new cement, which is being done."

"And further, I stated some time ago that my office is open at any time for the public to come in and examine my books. It is still open."

RETALIATION

Buller will Give Unvarnished History of Muschester, Eng., Nov. 5.—The retaliation of Buller against his persecutors which was predicted by the general's friends at the time of his dismissal from the command of Aldershot is, according to the Dispatch, about to take definite form. The paper says: "Buller has decided to give the unvarnished history of the military operations in South Africa from the Jameson raid onward. All the intrigues of the Rhodes set will be exposed and War Office bungling brought to light."
