

5th. At the regular election of Synodical Representatives provisional Representatives may be elected.

6th. The Representatives of the Laity must be at least twenty-one years of age, having been communicants for the twelve months preceding the election, and every adult male parishioner may vote for the Parish or District of which he is a member, upon subscribing the following declaration (if required by the chairman or any parishioner present), "I do declare that I am a member of the United Church of England and Ireland, and belong to no other religious denomination."

7th. Each Representative shall receive from his Minister a certificate that he is qualified as above, and from the chairman of the meeting at which he is elected, a certificate of his election, and shall continue in office until his successor be appointed.

NOTE.—At the second session, the Synod resolved that the words "his Minister," in the above clause, shall mean, the Minister from whom he receives the Holy Communion, or any Clergyman of the Church of England who can certify that he is a communicant.

* "That no Lay Representatives shall take their seat in the Synod, the dues of which Parish or District are one year in arrears."

The above, passed at the Eleventh Session, was confirmed at the Thirteenth Session.

8th. If a vacancy should occur in the number of Representatives, the Minister shall proceed to appoint a new election, with as little delay as possible after due notice; and in case there be no Minister, then the Church Wardens or three members of the vestry, or if there be no wardens or vestry, then any five parishioners may summon a meeting to fill up the vacancy.

9th. Each parish, or district within a parish that may have been placed under the charge of a clergyman other than the Rector, may send two Representatives.

10th. The quorum required to constitute a session of the Synod shall consist of not less than one-fourth of the whole number of qualified Presbyters in the Diocese, and of the Lay Representatives whose election shall have been certified to the Registrar of the Diocese; but no vote of the Synod
