THE FOOT-PATH TO PEACE.

HENRY VAN DYKE.

"To be glad of life, because it gives you the chance to love and to work and to play and to look up at the stars; to be satisfied with your positions, but not contented with yourself until you have made the best of them; to despise nothing in the world except falsehood and meanness, and to fear nothing except cowardice; to be governed by your admirations rather than by your disgusts; to covet nothing that is your neighbor's except his kindness of heart and gentleness of manner; to think seldom of your enemies, often of your friends, and every day of Christ; and to spend as much time as you can, with body and with spirit, in God's out-of-doors—these are little guide-posts on the foot-path to peace."
