

No. 5—Golden Jolly's Champion, first as aged cow, champion and grand champion. Note the exceptionally fine all-round qualities of this cow. No. 6—Pearl of Kirkfield (Imp.) First as aged bull, champion and grand champion at Toronto for four years in succession and under three different judges. No. 7—Kirkfield's Mabel, winner of first prize for one year old heifer in milk, and of the junior championship. No. 8—Invernia's Queen, first prize three year old cow.

Exhibit of Tubular Cream Separators made by the Sharples Separator Company of Toronto and Winnipeg at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, 1910.