The arrival of the Falcon on Tuesday morning.

The St. John's papers mention the arrival of Scotia and P. E. Island, and congratulate themselves on being able to lay in a cheap supply for the ensuing winter. - The want of a Town Hall is being severely felt in St. John's, and propositions have been made to provide a suitable building .--The Edifice in which the Legislative bodies, are to meet does not seem to give sitisfaction. It has the Island £15000 for building, and £3000 for faraiture, and after all is spoken of as a poor affair. .- A weaver has been imported from this proviace, who is to commence operations forthwith. -It has been estimated that the sum of £71,000 system pursued by the Banks in St. Johns, is being discussed by the newspapers. The debt of Newfoundland is now upwards of £100,000 --- Contrade is pretty brisk .- The Ladies connected vessels having arrived from Hamburg, on board of which some of the crew had died on the passage. To quiet those alarms, the vessels had been ordered into quarantine—although one of them was ment in goal, Lacoste has made disclosures to some more than half unloaded !-- A man named Pats of his fellow prisoners, which, taken in connection tain to be profitable, and unlikely to attract the Seanlon, only a few days arrived from the Labra- with the remainder of the evidence, can leave no dor Fishery, was drownel at Saint Johns, 17th att —A Mr. Humphrey was about to enlighten the good people of St. Johns, on the mysterious work- ted at 6 r.
