LIFE

is the most precarious of human possessions; the one indispensable element of a business or professional career.

is the one interruption to an active and useful career that is invariably final; it strikes when or where it will, often sparing, for the time being, the decrepit and debilitated, only to smite the sturdy and vigorous.

Life Insurance is just for such a contingency, and in deference not only to the comfort and security of loved ones, but to personal peace of mind as well, it is incumbent upon every man to procure a policy of adequate amount at once.

SEVERAL NEW FEATURES

will be included in all policies issued after the beginning of 1911 by The Great-West Life Assurance Company.

Not the least of these is the Total Disability Clause—making a provision for the insured in the event of his becoming totally incapacitated. Premiums remain just as low as ever, and we anticipate that the same high profit returns will mature to policyholders in future as have earned for The Great-West Life their enviable reputation.

If you are interested in this new special addition and would like to get fullest possible information, write NOW—stating age—to
