THINGS IN GERMANY.

Germany's proportion of suicides is larger than that of any other European country.

The number of telephonic stations in Germany was 1,504 in 1881, had increased at the beginning of the present year to 63,558.

An international matrimonial paper is about to make its appearance in Berlin, Germany. The new journal will be printed in three languages—German, English and French.

Great discontent is shown in Germany at the large number of pensioned officers in the army. Since the present emperor ascended the throne in 1888, 4,000 have been forced to resign.

Eisleben, the birthplace of Martin Luther, is sinking into the moor upon which it is built. Measures have been taken in recent years to drain the bog, without avail, and the inhabitants are seriously thinking of abandoning the town.

A Change of Sex.

The novelist of the future will have to change the sex of the old Scotch gardener who potters around in the conservatory, who hates to have his choice blooms plucked, and who utters words of wisdom in quaint dialect to the members of the family. Not even gardening, the profession which would seem to be men's by inheritance since the days "when Adam delved and Eve span" is left to men. Lady Carlisle is training an entire staff of women to take charge of the fine grounds on her extensive estate in York. Miss Wilkinson, an English woman, has recently been complimented by royalty on her landscape gardening at Vauxhall Park, which has just been opened by the Prince of Wales.

Now that garden parties and picnics are pleasures of the past, and socials, dances, balls, etc., are present, it would be well for those entertaining to keep on hand a few dozen of SAVORY'S splendid Champagne Cider. It is a delicious beverage for the supper table. Use champagne glasses and ice for those who are in need of a cool refreshing drink.

SAVORY'S CHAMPAGNE CIDER, being strictly the pure, highly refined juice extracted from home grown apples, is a healthy and temperate substitute at all times for champagne, claret, etc., and is superior to all cheap concoctions sold under the name of champagne.
