Items of Interest

William Shaw, the Carp drug clerk, who was shot at Bridge End, died in Cornwall Hospital, and Reeve McRae is held on a charge of murder.

A certain employer once offered a prize to the driver who could show the best-groomed horse, the brightest harness, the cleanest stable, and so forth. One of his men, Timothy by name, seemed certain of the prize, for after a careful scrutiny the judge was about to declare him the winner when his eye fell on a cobweb in a dim corner of the mare's stable. Timothy saw the judge's face, and, observing the cause of it, spoke up briskly: "I kept that web there, sir, to catch the flies. The way they torment the mare is something fierce."

The increase in the number of rural telephones in Ontario during the past years has been remarkable. There were fewer than 2000 telephones in the farmhouses of Ontario five years ago, while to-day there are 50,000, representing an investment of $4,000,000. About 90 per cent of these rural systems have been organized by the farmers themselves. This remarkable growth proves how quickly an utility will spread and the people when some method is discovered which renders it available at a reasonable price. There are many other things that would become far more popular than they now are if the price were right.

A fisherman succeeded in stealing a goose from a farmhouse by trailing his fishing-line along the ground in sight of the goose. The goose, seeing the worm bit at it and got caught by the hook. When caught the man ran, pulling the bird after him. The bird by flapping her wings alarmed the farmer's wife, who came out to the gate, and seeing the man running and the goose following, she exclaimed: "Don't be afraid my good man: she won't touch you."

There is little to choose between the sun that kills and the water that drowns. The toll of the two in Canada this year is absolutely unprecedented. The details in not a few cases of drowning prove that the wise rule against bathing shortly after a meal is very generally neglected. It would be well to require pupils in the public schools to memorize a few don't's for bathers.

Joseph Smith, President of the Mormon Church, says that polygamy is now too expensive. An American lady, replying to an argument in favor of polygamy for men who could afford it, said that when a man came forward who could earn more money than one woman could spend she would favor letting him have two wives.

Fire at Shallow Lake.

Owen Sound, Ont., July 11.—For a time this morning fire threatened to wipe out the huge Canada Cement Co.'s plant at Shallow lake, about ten miles from here. About four o'clock in the morning fire was discovered in the rotary kiln building and before the company's volunteer brigade could turn the water upon it the entire structure was aflame. Two hours of hard work saved the remainder of the buildings, but the kiln building was a wreck when a brigade which had been sent from Owen Sound arrived on the scene by rail. The loss will be up in the thousands though no accurate estimate can be formed yet as the five big rotary kilns and the fixtures are too hot to admit of ascertaining whether or not they are badly damaged. If they cannot be used it is problematical if the plant can resume operation this season.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS TORONTO.

City Cattle Market, July 11.—Under the influence of an apparent break in the hot weather, the Cattle Market steadied itself slightly to-day. The run was quite short, and butcher buyers exhibited more confidence, so that trade was fairly active. There was a scarcity of good light butcher cattle, and some buyers went short. One load of extra choice light butcher cattle brought $5.95 and $5.90 was touched several times, but the bulk of the good cattle sold from $5.60 to $5.80. Common cattle recovered a little from yesterday's drop of 40 cents, but the market was a little more than steady. Bulls were the dearest item, comparatively, being sold as high as $5 per cwt. Cows were also a little better at $4.25 to $4.75. Sheep and lambs were good and steady. Hogs were unchanged. The run included 60 loads, 750 cattle, 480 sheep and lambs 400 hogs, and 112 calves.

Some representative transactions were as follows:—

J. Dunn bought for the Ontario Government one load choice butcher cattle 950 to 1,000 lbs. each, at $5.60 to $5.90. Dave Rowntree bought 125 lambs, 94 to 100 lbs. at $8.75; 40 sheep, $3.25 to $5.50; 60 calves, $5.50 to $8.

Wesley Dunn bought 100 sheep, average, $3.75; 250 lambs, average, $8.25; 75 calves, average, $7.

Maybe and Wilson sold three loads butcher cattle at $5 to $5.75; 15 cows at $2.50 to $4.

W. J. Neely (Park and Blackwell) bought two loads butcher cattle at $5.25 to $5.75; common at $4.90 to $5.20; cows $4 to $4.75.

Fined for Hindering Mail.

Warton, July 11.—Constable O. C. Bridge, of Lion's head, and Alonzo Slocum, of Spry, were arraigned before P. M. Miller to-day on a charge of hindering the royal mail and were found guilty each being fined $20 and costs.

There is an interesting story in connection with this judgment. For some time past there has been a suspicion that liquor was being secretly and illegally taken into the north country, and the stage driver was believed to know something about it.

In the hope of securing some tangible evidence, the Lion's Head mail stage was held up at Sparrow Bay by the two constables, and the vehicle was searched for supposed consignments of the liquid tanglefoot.

Their method of procedure, however, was not according to Hoyle, nor in accord with the laws of the land, and High Constable Robert Wood laid an information whereby police court proceedings were instituted. The case was heard in the town hall this afternoon. County Crown Attorney Dickson, of Walkerton, prosecuted, while C. S. Cameron, of Owen Sound, acted on behalf of the defendants.

Dry Weather.

J. PLUVIUS turned not the crank that operates his water tank. He watched the baking earth below, and heard the people wail in woe, but not a bit did he relent; he didn't seem to care a cent. Old Vulcan heard the people's wails, where he was making horseshoe nails, and said: "Say, Pluve, turn on the drink! Those fellows below are on the blink." But Pluvius said: "Gee whiz! you'll teach me how to run my biz? I tell you Vulc, those mortal men must have a lesson now and then. For many years I've sent them rain, and crops have grown on every plain. Prosperity was at their doors, where now the wolf of famine roars. And while I kept their planet wet, there was a carnival of debt. Men blew their substance, wild and free, as though it grew upon a tree. Their stock of luxuries enlarged, they bought fool things and had them charged. Men threw their money at the stars, and traded homes for chug-chug cars, and rioted at every chance, like drunken sailors at a dance. And so I cooked their blamed old earth, to teach them what good fortune's worth. When they have chewed on husks a while they'll learn to save their little pile."—Walt Mason in the Star.

Will be Accepted.

The new one dollar notes will be accepted at the Gazette office for yearly subscriptions. If you are in arrears very far, either the old or the new will be accepted. In the new note, in place of the engravings of Lord and Lady Aberdeen, there are those of Lord and Lady Grey. In the old ones the portraits were in the upper corner, but in the new ones they are in the centre side by side. The lumbering scene has been omitted. The bills are executed in green and black ink, instead of brown and black as formerly, and the denomination is expressed in letters as well as in figures.
