MUSICAL RECITAL BY THE PUPILS OF MISS A. E. KERR

An annual event which is looked forward to with much interest by those who are fortunate enough to be confident of an invitation to it, is the recital by the musical pupils of Miss Kerr, and this year the event, which took place on Friday evening, April 19, at the residence of Mrs. C. S. Everett, was particularly successful. The children rendered their pieces in a way that showed their real liking for their musical studies, and reflected great credit on their instructress. A large number of the items on the programme, which we give below, were excellent examples of memorization. The last item of all, "A Visit to Beethoven," was especially enjoyed by the audience, not only because of the acting and costumes of the performers, but also because of the many classical pieces introduced. The costumes, while remarkable for their extreme elegance, also proved by their age that conservation is no new invention.

Mrs. W. A. FRANKLAND

White Head, Grand Manan, Apr. 22.—The community was greatly saddened to learn, on the morning of April 16th, that Mrs. Sarah Frankland, wife of W. A. Frankland, had passed away. It is supposed that her death was caused by a paralytic seizure. Besides her husband, there are left to mourn her loss, five sons and one daughter. The sorrowing family has the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. Deceased had a kind and considerate nature which endeared her to all who knew her, and her death is a source of great sorrow. At the funeral which took place on Wednesday, 17th, the choir sang the following hymns:—"Does Jesus Care," "Meet Mother in the Skies," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." A beautiful pillow of flowers was presented by friends of the deceased.

ROBERT NELSON

April 23.

Robert Nelson eighty-five years of age, died at the home of Mr. Nelson Dodds on Wednesday last. Mr. Nelson was born in Ireland and came to St. George when very young, where he spent a long life-time, always commanding the respect of the community. An ultra-loyalist and a stalwart Liberal he was intensely interested in the many elections held in his day. He took great pride in the fact that he signed the late Hon. A. H. Gillmor's first nomination papers and supported him all ways, and also supported his son, the late Senator Gillmor when he ran for the House of Commons.

The funeral was held on Friday, and a large number of citizens attended. Rev. Mr. DeWolfe held services at the house. Interment was in the rural cemetery.

St. Stephen, N. B., April 24.

Mr. Abram Yerxa, a man of 87 years, who was residing with his daughter, Mrs. George McLellan, Prince William Street, passed away very suddenly at noon on Tuesday while eating dinner. His death was a great shock to his family and friends.

The funeral service was held from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. McLellan on Wednesday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, and was conducted by Rev. Dr. W. C. Goucher. The remains were taken to Keswick on the C. P. R. evening train for Interment.

Besides these, she leaves her mother, and three children, Claude, Freda, and Mary, who live with their grandmother here.

Cossaboom, of North Head, on Wednesday, April 23rd. There was a good gathering of friends and relatives, and many tokens of esteem and good-will were shown by the large number of presents. The young couple will reside at Grand Harbor.

RINGING CALL TO CANADIAN TROOPS

Ottawa, April 19.—In anticipation of a tremendous assault against the Canadian lines, Lieut. General Sir Arthur W. Currie, K. C. B., K. C. M. G., commanding the Canadian corps, issued a special order on March 27 and exhorted all ranks to advance or fall where they stood facing the enemy. He felt that the Canadians would repeat the victories of the past. A copy of the order has been received by an Ottawa woman from a relative overseas.

It reads as follows: "In an endeavor to reach an immediate decision the enemy has gathered all his forces and struck a mighty blow at the British army. Overwhelmed by sheer weight of numbers the British divisions in the line between the Scarpe and the Oise have fallen back fighting hard, steady and undismayed. Measures have been taken successfully to meet the German onslaught. The French have gathered a powerful army commanded by a most able and trusted leader, and this army is now moving swiftly to our help. Fresh British divisions are being thrown in. The Canadians are soon to be engaged. Our motor machine gun brigade has already played a most gallant part and once again covered itself with glory."

"Looking back with pride on the unbroken record of your glorious achievements, asking you to realize that to-day the fate of the British Empire hangs in the balance, I place my trust in the Canadian corps, knowing that where Canadians are engaged, there can be no giving way. Under the orders of your devoted officers in the coming battle, you will advance or fall where you stand facing the enemy."

"To those who fall I say: 'You will not die but step into immortality. Your mothers will not lament your fate but will be proud to have borne such sons. Your names will be revered forever by your grateful country, and God will take you unto Himself.'

"Canadians! In this fateful hour, I command you and I trust you to fight as you have ever fought, with all your strength, with all your determination with all your tranquil valor. On many a hard fought field of battle you have overcome this enemy and with God's help you shall achieve victory once more."

"A. W. CURRIE,
Lieut. General,
Commanding Canadian Corps."

RED TRIANGLE CAMPAIGN

A meeting of County Committee to undertake the work of the Red Triangle Fund Campaign was held at the Town Council Chambers, Monday afternoon, April 15th.

A. D. Ganong, chairman; E. G. Beck, E. W. Ward, R. D. Ross, J. L. Haley, V. V. Vanstone, Haddon Wry, Lewis F. Mills, Dr. H. I. Taylor, M. L. A., St. George; H. Vaughan Dewar, St. George; Rev. B. H. Pen-Warden, St. George; G. W. McKay, Beaver Harbor; W. L. Barry, Beaver Harbor; George M. Byren, Campobello; Samuel Hall, Elmsville; and Mayor Burns of Milltown, were in attendance.

The general organization of the County was talked over, and it was decided that Charlotte County's portion of $6,000 to be raised could be most equally raised by asking $1.00 per head from each polling division. This would figure almost exactly the amount, but as it is easier to raise the money in the towns, the amount from the towns was increased to make up for any shortage there might be in the smaller places.—St. Croix Courier, April 25.

"Why did he marry her at all if he intended getting a divorce so speedily?" "Because he didn't think it would be honorable to break the engagement."—Boston Transcript.
