MARRIAGES

AH-PORTER—At Salmon Creek an, on October 23rd, by the D. McD. Clarke, Harry C. Darof Chipman to Alice R. Porter on Creek. ESS - FLEWELLING. - At the

of the bride's parents ton, Ont. 22nd, 1907, by Rev. H. ung, B.A., Fred A. Flewelling Vida Pearl Burgess, both of AS-HODGES-On Oct. 16th, at esidence of the bride's mother, H. W. Hodges, 88 Duke St., End, by Rev. M. E. Fletcher, to Sadie Alberta Hodges, of St.

N WANTED - Reliable men in locality throughout Canada to tise our goods, tack up show-on trees, fences, along roads and spicuous places; also distributmall advertising matter. Salary per year, or $75 per month and ex-es $3 per day. Steady employ-to good, reliable men. No execessary. Write for par EMPIRE MEDICINE CO., Lon-

NTED AT ONCE on salary and nses, one good man in each locality rig, or capable of handling horses, vertise and introduce our guaranstock and poultry specifics. No lence necessary; we lay out your for you. $25 a week and ex-Position permanent. . JENKINS MANUFACTURING ou want a farm home in British mbia, drop a postal card for full HOMESEEKERS ASSOCIA-N. LTD., Vancouver, B. C.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WHOLESALE LIQUORS M. L. WILLIAMS., Successor to M.

Spirit Merchant, 110 and 112 Prince liam St. Established 1870.

A PROSPEROUS YEAR

ONDON, Oct. 30.-At the meeting lay of the White Pass and Yukon lway the chairman said the past r had been the most pro perous e the earliest years of the company. hoped the Canadian parliament ald grant the act for the construcof fourteen miles next session, so the construction might be com ted next summer.

ANADA'S CUSTOMS COLLECTIONS

MONTREAL, Oct. 30 .- The custom ections of Canada for the first seven onths of the fiscal year amount to ase of $6,691,790 over the same period st year. During the month of Octoan increase of $275,500 for the SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 30.-The alifornia Safe Deposit Bank closed its ors this afternoon. A notice was sted on the door stating that "owing the fact that the bank was not a ber of the Clearing House Assoation was unable to take advantage

The Dews.

ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1907.

STEWARDS ON C.P.R. STEAMERS DID FLOURISHING BUSINESS SMUGGLING PASSENGERS ACROSS

Two Men Who Had Left Empress of Britain in Quebec, Arrested Yesterday in Montreal—They Are Also Charged With Theft — They Pleaded Not Guilty.

MONTREAL, Nov. 13.-By the ar- | Eventually suspicion fell upon Korff rest of Albert Korff, 32 years of age, and Davis, who were employed as and Samuel Davis, 38 years of age, the steward and under steward upon the Canadian detective bureau officials be- "Empress of Britain." They were who took an active part in the late campaign of snuggling people, for a campaign consideration of the men watched, but towards the end of August when the vessel reached Quebec, they decided that they were not safe small consideration, free of passage aboard ship, and deserted. From that prominent citizens of the place. The money on the C. P. R. liners from Liv- time the authorities of the C. P. R. launching toook place at the Bell lab-

VOL. 31.

For quite a long time the smuggling | ping all smuggling of passengers. the C. P. R. liners, but it is believed sel they came to Montreal, but were and just as easy a matter to provide them with food. The pian was easy, the only hazardous part of the business really being to get the favorable opportunity to dy in the non-paying passengers ashor, when they reached

Atlantic line have succeeded in stop-captured yesterday, although no pho- name to be "The Signet." was comparatively simple for the tographs of them could be procured

When brought before Judge Lafontaine this morning the two men plead- place. ed not guilty to the charge of theft. They will, it is understood, be were so large that the business soon bec will be sent over to Liverpool,

HAD NARROW ESCAPE YET LIVES TO BE 94

Causes Early Death

FREDERICTON, N. B., Nov. 13.-The ease of Seery, executor, v. the Federal concluded in the supreme ourt this afternoon. The court reserves ratrix, v. the City of St. John is now being argued and will be concluded in morning. Daniel Mullin, K. C., is moving for a verdict for the plaintiff pursuant to leave reserved or for new trial, and is being opposed by Recorder Skinner in behalf of the city. The argument in Seery case brought forth some interesting remarks from the presiding judge on the use of intoxicating liquor and what was considered moderate drinking or use to excess as regards detriment to tife. Some of the court expressed an opinion that it was fore much damage was done, a question which seemed impossible to decide. Judge Hanington said that he

The Royal Gazette issued this evening contains the appointments made at the government meeting last week. of Hibernia bridge, parish of Simonds Incorporation was granted the Oro- St. John Co., and for building Jemses

DRUNK HALF THE TIME DALHOUSIE MILL

the county court today Angus Duguay was acquitted of the charge of theft. Duguay is about twelve years old, residing in Campbellton. Fred McLean was convicted of theft late yesterday. from Campbellton death by drowing. another industry by fire, when the boiler house of Bearinger & Chapin's lumber mill caught fire. Happily it was noticed in time to be put out be-

HAMILTON, Nov. 13.-There was costly fire at Caledonia this morning, consumed liquor enough to float a frigate and was intoxicated one-half of grain elevator and many thousand feet time, yet he lived to an age of 94. of lumber and a coal pile were convied the health of men who drank li-quor far in excess of any he had ever quer far in excess of any he had ever overheated stove in the station bag- able of being taken into account in its used. These and other remarks made gageroom was responsible. Damage construction the argument in the insurance case has been placed at $15,000, with insurance of only $5,000.

CYPHER'S

Oyster Shells,

Mann's Green Bone Cutters.

Write for Catalogue and Prices to Market Square, St. John, N. B.

Crystal Grit,

Tenders are called for the re-building $99,000 of 198 shares. The object is to carry on the lumber and milling business.

Mouth low-water wharf, Cambridge parish, Queens Co.; for the repairing of Bustin low-water wharf, Sunbury business. Augustin Goguen of Gloucester, hotel and breakwater, Sussex, Kings Co., and keeper, has assigned to D. D. Landry, the re-building of Drury Cove bridge,

DR. GRAHAM BELL HAS THE KEY TO THE PROBLEM OF HUMAN FLIGHT

Flying Machine Was Launched at Baddeck N. S. Yesterday

Great Inventor Believes He Has Discovered Solution of Aerial Navigation-This Ma chine is Only Experiment.

HALIFAX, Nov. 13.-After many years of experimental work a contrivance with which Dr. A. Graham Bell hopes to solve the problem of aerial navigation was successfully launched at Baddeck, N. S., today in the presence of a number of intimate friends of the inventor and a few of the more oratory, the ceremony of christening being attended to by Mrs. Bell, who in When Korff and Davis left the ves- breaking a bottle of champagne over the bow of the airship declared its

At three o'clock the great doors of the stewards on these vessels to smuzzle and the description given of them was workshop were thrown open and the people aboard at Liverpool, hide them of the most hazy description. The kite was conveyed to a float, upon character concerning the disappearance in certain parts of the vessel, where actual specific charge against the two which it was towed out on the waters they knew they could not be found, men is that they stole $400 worth of of the Bras d'Or lakes. Owing to adgoods, furnishings and steward's ap- verse weather conditions, however, a flight was not attempted, the formal launching of the vessel only taking of tetrahedron 13 metres long on top, this side of the water, and the profits back tonight to Quebec and from Que- 10 metres along on the bottom by three metres deep. It is composed of 3,393 units or small tetrahedrons, two faces of which are covered with silk, thus forming a two winged cell. These cells so arranged are said to give as a result of many tests the maximum stability with the lightest weight. A ole is cut through the centre of the contrivance to furnish accommodation for the motor and aviator. The ship brokers were recalled. is also provided with a bow for flying and weighs 120 lbs. It drives two solid acrew propellers on the same shaft, but in opposite directions. These are employed to reduce the turning move-ment which results in the tendency to square feet of silk, the area of its horizontal projection being 84 square metres. With the motor in position it Judgment was reserved. McLean comes weighs 290 pounds, as was carefully explained at the laboratory today by Peter Carr, who has been residing Dr. Bell. It is claimed of The Signe in the west for a number of years, re- that she has now solved the problem turned to his home here on receiving for which she was constructed. This the sad news of his bother Andrew's is hoped she will do, though nothing definite can be given out until after appearing for class C shareholders went her trial spins. Of her capacity to support certain loads, Dr. Bell is per- Stuart Lynn and A. Herrington as to fectly aware, although he considers it the relations between this company and premature to rate her now as the subsidiary organizations. Indeed, the threshold merely has been reached in the development of the machine and experiments now to be taken up will be mainly productive in the furnishing of data for future experi-Theoretically the machine is ments. prepared to fly, though many modifica-

HAD LEG TAKEN OFF

ALMA, Nov. 13.-Miss Marle Lutwick, who has been visiting friends home on Saturday morning. On Wednesday evening a very pleasant party

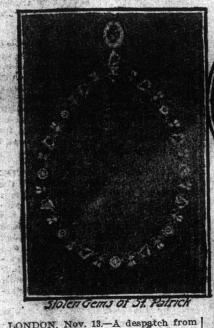

On Friday D. A. McQuaid and daughter, Mrs. R. Butland, left for St. John to see Mr. McQuaid's daughter, POULTRY GOODS Mrs. Day, who is ill at the hospital. Capt. D. Alexander of Pt. Wolfe left or River Hebert, N. S., on Saturday norning, where his son Cecil was seriously injured in an accident on Friday. Young Alexander was mate of the sch. Union, and in some way got his leg so badly injured that amputation above the knee was necessary to save his life The last word received he was resting easily and was doing as well as could be expected.

C. Dowling and bride arrived from the West last week and were given a splendid welcome by their friends.

MRS. BREEN. The death occurred at Moss Glen, ings County, Sunday, off Mrs. Cunningham Breen after a lingering illness. The late Mrs. Breen was in her seventy-fifth year and was a daughter of the late John Murphy of Petersville, Queens county. Besides her husband Mrs. Breen is survived by four children, Whitfield of Michigan, Mrs. the new marriage act in this province, Fred Hannah of Millidgeville, William in which provsion is made for the an-Regers of Grey's Mills, Kings Co. Mrs. Two applications were made this morn-W H. Thorne & Co., Limited. Reid, sheriff, who resides at Gage- father wants her marriage to William row environment of local politics, and that they have been restored and are at present in safe keeping at the Birbefore they were taken away. If this rumor is true, the restoration of the jewels, consisting of the insignia of the Order of St. Patrick, was ever covered them to be missing from the Scotland Yard and the Irish detec tives worked unremittingly on the mystery until an order was received from a mysterious source which caused a els. Accordingly notices sent to pawr At the time the Insignia disappeared

MYSTERIOUS RESTORATION OF

THE IRISH CROWN JEWELS

Knight of St. Patrick. The installa-

WES GAION WO YORK LOAN AFFAIRS

Between the Company and Subsldiary Organizations

TORONTO, Nov. 13.-At the York Loan investigation today, A. W. Briggs into the details of assets and examined

Lynn said $60,000 worth of C. P. R. stock was sold just prior to the liquidation order. The profit on this had been about $14,000. Referring to the assets of the defunct corporation in the shape of Toronto real estate, held by a subsidiary concern, the City Realty Company, Kapelle remarked that the holdngs, which were at the institution of $121,940, would now be worth much more than this, due to higher prices

HAD TWO WIVES AND IS ARRESTED IN SCITUATE

MONCTON, Nov. 12.-William G. Mc-

Donald, whose first wife arrived in Moncton a few days ago looking for her husband who deserted herself and here for the past two weeks, left for child eight years old and married another woman, has been arrested at Scituate, Mass. Deputy sheriff of that was given in her honor by Miss Mary place has sent a telegram to Mrs. McDonald number one, now in Moncton, asking her to come to Scituate. McDonald has been arrested, charged with polygamy, probably at instance of A happy event took place recently at Toronto, when Miss Cora Estelle Milton, formerly of Albert Mines, was married to Dr. C. E. Edgett, formerly as government meat inspector. MRS. JAMES MAGEE.

The death took place yesterday of Mrs. Annie Magee, widow of James Magee. The deceased lady leaves one son, Wm. Magee, butcher, of Charlotte street, and four daughters, Miss Annie, in the employ of Macaulay Bros. & Co.;

Miss Margaret, accountant with her

TORONTO, Nov. 13 .-- Young girls who get married and change their minds afterward are invoking aid of of Malden, Mass., and Mrs. Charles nulling of marriages between minors. Sargent of this city is a sister of ing. Margaret E. Knight of Toronto the deceased. Four brothers also sur- Junction wants her marriage to Wil-Boston, Robert of Petersville and Jas. cancelled, and Edna Eliza Patterson's has political ambition beyond the nar-

NIGHT AT AMHERS

Although the ship exposes 2,200 More information About the Relations Were En Route to Dorchester Penitentiaru from Sydney

> Amherst Teacher Resigns and Successor is Appointed—A New Paper in Cumberland County, N. S.

AMHERST, Nov. 13.-H. J. Logan M. P., leaves this week to take part in the Colchester campaign. He has already been billed to speak in Londonderry and other points in the coun-Seven prisoners from Sydney en route to Dorchester spent the night in Amherst within the confines of the Cumberland county jail. This occurs frequently, owing to the rule at Dorchester penitentiary not to admit prisoners after six o'clock, hence it is necessary for the sheriff or officer to spend the night in Amherst or some other town with the prisoners in charge. The notorious Tony Cokell of Sydney, who endeavored to break jail in that town lately, is among the prisoners. He was recently sentenced to a ten year term in Dorchester by Judge Drysdale. Mrs. Ella Silver, daughter of C. T. Hillson, left today for a trip to Montreal and New York.

Dr. B. C. Borden, principal of the Ladies' College in Sackville, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church last Sunday at both services and preached with great acceptance to large congre-

The Technical School will open in Amherst about December first. A large number of young men have enrolled as students, and the indications are that of Moncton, now stationed in Toronto the school will be a decided success. Excellent rooms have been secured for school purposes in the Maritime Block. "moving picture" craze has struck Amherst with a vengeance There are now four companies exhibiting nightly in our town, and it is estimated that from two to three thousand people visit these shows nightly. W. E. Outhit of Melvern Square, Annapolis county, has accepted a position on the Amherst school staff made vacbrother, and Misses May and Ethel at | ant by the resignation of J. E. Mc home. The deceased lady had many Vicar. A few weeks ago Mr. McVicar friends who will regret her death. The got into an altercation with the father funeral will take place on Sunday af- of one of his pupils and the result was disastrous. Mr. McVicar then tendered his resignation to the school board, while was accepted. Mr. McVicar has been in Amherst for three years and has a splendid record as a teacher. Cumberland is to have another news paper bearing the name of the Cumberland Star. It will be published in Springhill. Its owner is D. McLeod, town clerk of that town and the defeated Conservative candidate in the vive, John of Boyt station, William of liam Anderson, driver for a grocery, last election. Mr. McLeod; it is said,

COLLINS SANE, IS VERDICT OF GOVERNMENT ALIENIST AFTER CAREFUL EXAMINATION

Consequently Law Will Take its Course Tomorrow— Radcliffe Changes Plan of Gallows and Will Use Platform and Trap—Prisoner Preparing for the End.

OTTAWA, Nov. 13.-The Dominion | ing the scaffold has already been begovernment has had an alienist ex- gun and everything will be in readiamine Collins, under sentence for mur- hess by tomorrow. der. He has reported Collins sane, prisoner, apparently repentant and and the execution will take place on fully realizing his position, patiently

HOPEWELL CAPE, Albert Co., Nov. Salvation Army officers and this even-13.—Preparations for the execution of ing the Rev. Wm. Lawson, Methodist Collins, the condemned murderer, made clergyman, of Hillsboro, and a friend good progress today, though the work made a quite lengthy visit to the was set back somewhat by a change in prisoner in his cell. Mr. Lawson exthe plans of the gallows, which was pressed the belief that the condemned ordered by the executioner, who arrived mas was making proper preparations here this afternoon and at once went dition. He stated to the clergyman to the jail to inspect the work at the who talked and prayed with him, that gallows building, which was in pro- he was willing to trust the Saviour and gress. The executioner at once con- await the end with confidence. demned the beam and drop arrange- preacher did not ask him as ment which was expected to be used guilt or innocence. So far no confesand ordered the erection of the scaf- sion has been learned of. Before leavthe change was because, he considered clergyman and the lady who was with the horizontal beam and swing would him, sang several hymns in the doomed too far in the air with the probability ly affected. Some of the hymns were though the scaffold and trap idea was thought by many to be obsolete. The hangman appeared to prefer it. This will consist of a scaffold eight feet square, supported on posts and eleven feet from the ground. In the centre of the platform of the scaffold is a true.

In the quiet of his prison cell, the without government interfer- awaits the end, while just outside the prison walls the carpenters are busy This explains the mysterious visit to preparing the place on which he is to Collins by an unknown man a few die in a few short hours.

Collins was visited today for his last hour, and was gradually Radcliffe, who will officiate, reached reaching a satisfactory spiritual confold and trap. Radcliffe's reason for ing the prisoner this evening the have the effect of throwing the man man's cell and the prisoner was greatof his striking the beam over head, unfamiliar to him, but one of them he feet from the ground. In the centre of the platform of the scaffold is a trap four feet square on which the condemned man will stand and through which at the fatal moment he will drop to his death. The well of one of the decomed man until the end.

The death occurred Friday of Wi

DEATHS

MRS. THOMAS MURRAY. The death of Mrs. Thomas Murray, morning last, removed one of our elderly residents, who was held in high esteem by all who knew her. Mrs. Murray had been in failing health durillness was of brief duration, her death esulting from heart trouble. Mrs. Murray was a daughter of the late age, as have all the members of Guerdon DeWolfe and was born in St. Stephen seventy years ago last August. In 1865 she was united in marriage with Thomas Murray, and for a few years they resided in Halifax, returning to St. Stephen about 1870. Mr. Murray departed this life about two years ago. The surviving members of her family are Miss Maria Murray, at nome; W. St. J. Murray, employed at Milinocket, Me.; Thomas, Charles and Frank Murray and Mercy (Mrs. Wanamaker), who are now residing at Claresholm, Alberta. One sister, Mrs. Robert McDiarmid, in Wisconsin, and three brothers, Thomas DeWolfe in Boston and Benjamin and Andrew De-Wolfe in St. Stephen, also survive. The to his bed for the past week and his funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon and were largely attended. Rev. Geo. M. Young officiated assisted by Rev. W. C. Goucher. The pallbearers were W. St. J. Murray, Elwell, Walter and Burton DeWolfe The life of the deceased was one of rare devotion to her home circle and she was mist highly beloved and esteemed by those who knew her best. She united with the Methodist church while a resident of Halifax, and her life was at all times consistent with her professions. Sincere sympathy is extended to the serrowing ones .- St. Croix Courier.

FREDERICK WEBBER. Word was received Friday of the death at Washington, D. C., on Tuesday evening, November 5th, of Frederick Webber, known far and wide as the secretary is avail of the Supreme Council and Scottish Rite of Free Masonry for the southern jurisdiction of the United States. Mr. Webber had several friends here, as elsewhere, who learn with deep grief of his unexpected death, foremost among them, is Roger Hunter. They were lads together, Mr. Hunter and Mr. Webber were school fellows in Ireland and their friendship was ever warm and active.

WILLIAM FORBES. Word was received Friday by Judge Forbes of the death at Union Centre ,N. S., of his brother, William Forbes, who had been ailing for the past two months. Mr. Forbes was the eldest of a family of eight, seven sons and one daughter. He was born in Scotland 87 years ago. With their father, Captain John Forbes, the family resided for years on the old homestead farm where the deceased passed away. William Forbes' death makes the fifth son, others being Donald at Kansas, Alexander in California, Rev. A. F. in Winnipeg, and Rev. John F. Forbes of Sydney, N. S., who died curable. Mr. Clarke refused to give up about a year ago. The latter was at one time moderator of the Nova Scotia so by his health. He was confined to synod and was one of the foremost his bed for nine days previous to his preachers in the sister province. The death. He is survived by an invalid surviving members of the family be- mother, two brothers-Otto T. and Arsides Judge Forbes are Robert Forbes and Mrs. Ireland.

WILLIAM C. BRITTAIN.

C Brittain one of the oldest and most esteemed residents of West St. John. Mr. Brittain was in his ninetieth year which occurred at her home on Sunday and had been ill for but a short time. Ludlow street. Mr. Brittain was a carpenter by trade. He was a brother of the late S. L. Brittain, who was a ing the past two years but her final member of the City Council at one time. Another brother, Robert, died several years ago, attained a great

Mr. Brittain is survived by three sons, Frederick and William of this city, and George at present living in the United States. Two daughters, Mrs. James Ganong, of St. Stephen and Mrs. C. G. Brown, of Carleton, also survive Two sisters, Mrs. Evan Evans, who is over ninety years and Mrs. James Lord, who is eighty-five years of age, survive

FRED E. FLEWELLING. Fred E. Flewelilng, a well known morning after a brief illness. Mr. Flewelling had been ailing during the summer, but had been confined death comes as a shock to his many friends throughout the city. Mr. Flewelling conducted a grocery business at 26 Bridge street. He was a son of the late Isaac Flewelling and was unmarried. He is survived three unmarried sisters, Hattie G., Della L. and Annie F. The deceased was a member of the Church of England. He was widely known by persons connected with the river, and his loss will be deeply felt.

STEPHEN MacKENZIE. Stephen MacKenzie, who had both legs cut off at Vanceboro on Thursday last, died at the hospital here Sunday. MacKenzie was working on a ballast train in Vanceboro yard and while under the influence of liquor attempted to board a moving shunting engine and fell beneath the wheels. His legs were cut off and he was brought to the hospital. Endeavors are now being made to find the relatives of the deceased. FRANK N. CLARKE.

Frank N. Clarke, son of the late Thomas Clarke of St. John, died suddenly on Oct. 30 at the residence of his uncle, Robert G. Moffatt, at Donard, Malone Park, Belfast, Ire., from heart trouble, aged 38 years. Deceased was a native of this city, his father having been a partner in the hardware firm of Clarke, Kerr & Thorne. About twelve years ago he and his sister left nere to take up their residence with their uncle in Belfast. After he had been in Ireland a short time Mr. Clarke. entered the mercantile firm of Smith & Thompson. When Mr. Smith died he left his share in the business to Mr. Clarke, who retained it up to the time of his death. He had been sick with heart trouble for some time, and the celebrated specialist in such ease, Sir William White, pronounced his case inhis work, however, until forced to do thur E. Clarke in this city, and one sister in Belfast.