The C. P. R. beef train which passed through here at an early hour this morning was made up of forty-five cars, requiring two engines.

It is thought that the Rev. Stephen Bond, of Seaford, has the best chance of election to the presidency of the London Methodist Conference.

Hay shipments via C. P. R. have lately been quite heavy. A. Watt, of Toronto, has sent others, then came late and has about eighty tons yet to ship.

You may have some article you don't want. Somebody else, however, may be ready to use it. Offer it for sale by the transient advertising column on the first page.

Miss Minnie Newton, of Orangeville, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Wm. Mann, for the past two weeks, left to-day for home, no visit to an uncle in the city.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the William St. Baptist Church will hold an At Home at the residence of Mrs. Hugh McDonald, Raleigh St., on Friday afternoon, June 4th, from three to six o'clock.

Our Mackintoshes are the best. We show a complete line. The values are as stable as merit itself. The prices are gratefully favoring to the poor.

Go look at others, then come buy ours. There's money in it for you.

Providence does not smile upon our efforts to get our streets into passable condition. The scraper and the roller have been out all spring, but their appearance is almost an invariable sign of rain, particularly when Victoria avenue is taken in hand. Even the Banner's jubilee pavement is again at a standstill owing to the rain.

When the postoffice steps were displaced by iron rails, it was done with a view to relieving the crush always occasioned by everyone pushing and jostling to go in and out the same side of the double doors. But the people generally do not seem to mind such a little thing as railings, and the crush is just as great as before simply because they can't get to the right.

It is reported on good authority that The Farmers' Binder Twine Company in Hamilton are arranging to take over the immense Grand Trunk shops about to be vacated by the company, who are consolidating their car works at London. The Farmers' Company will utilize these splendid buildings in connection with the manufacture of agricultural implements and farm appliances of the most improved patterns on a co-operative basis, which they expect to get to the farmers of this country at about one-half present prices. It is to be hoped the farmers will take to the situation and appreciate the great efforts that are being put forth by the promoters of this co-operative enterprise.

The James Jaw Corbett "go and lick somebody" attitude is evidently becoming very popular in sporting circles, and the local football club are the amused recipients of the marbled heart in this respect. They communicate with the Oxford Springs club, who recently succeeded in defeating Dresden, asking for an Erne & Huron cup game here to-day. Captain Ed. Hambley writes Secretary Barrett of the local club as follows: "Can't come in next Thursday. Wouldn't if we could; we're too busy for you on defense. Defeat Dresden first, then we'll play you."

A MEAN ACT.

Before leaving for supper at six o'clock last evening, Ed. Corne, merchant tailor, Sixth St., hung out a suit of light clothes to dry at the rear of his establishment. The suit had been cleaned by him and was hung out prior to pressing. Upon returning about an hour later Mr. Corne found the clothes utterly destroyed. Some smoke had entered the vacant lot adjoining and thrown a quantity of acid over the suit, which was rapidly eating it away. The matter was at once reported to the police and an active investigation started, resulting in an important discovery, which will probably cause an arrest.

a course of Ayer's Pills the system is set in good working order and a man begins to feel that life is worth living. He who has become the gradual prey of constipation, does not realize the friction under which he labors, until the burden is lifted from him. Then his mountains sink into mole-hills, his moroseness gives place to jollity, he is a happy man again. If life does not seem worth living to you, you may take a very different view of it after taking

The duty of the council to stamp it right out now and firmly hold the responsible party for the amount.

Mr. Morrison, who was warden in '93 defeated himself. If he was to blame the treasurer was doubly so, and the clerk too.

Mr. Morrison thought the treasurer was responsible.

Mr. Leverton maintained that the council was there to do its duty, however unpleasant it might be. The real cause of the trouble had been the heartedness of the auditors. Instead of reporting the matter as default in the treasury, they had brought it in as an asset and the council had not realized the nature of it.
