POTATOES
The price of potatoes quoted of late has varied somewhat. Reports state that they are $1.00 per bushel in Prince Edward Island while a report comes from Halifax that jobbers tried to purchase at that price and failed, the price quoted in P. E. I. being $1.75 and predicted a return to higher figures.
Here in Kings County potatoes are now quite plentiful and those who expected $2.50 and $2.75 per bushel are now disappointed at much lower quotations. They are plenty of potatoes to last until after the new ones are marketed.

In a recent issue in writing up the Temperance Act and Police Court cases from information obtained The Advertiser stated in effect that Mr. William Carroll was convicted and fined for not remembering or stating where he obtained his liquor. Mr. Carroll wishes us to correct that statement as he told the full truth where the liquor was obtained the fine being imposed for other reasons.

On Saturday a Temperance Act case against S. Fielding was up before Stipendiary Strong, Inspector Patriquin prosecuting and Mr. J. F. Outhit conducting the case. A conviction was obtained for selling hard cider on evidence given by Scott Barkhouse.

Mrs. Manning Ellis and Mrs. Dexter Collins were in Truro last week as delegates from the Port Williams Women's Institute.

The choir provided suitable music. Miss Chambers and Mr. Pick sang a duet and Mrs. Sutherland a solo, all of which was much appreciated by those present. A HERO RETURNED AND ANOTHER KILLED IN ACTION

Private Paul Davidson returned to his home in Wolfville on Monday of last week and received a royal and hearty reception on arrival of the evening train. He had reached Halifax the Friday previous and his parents Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Davidson went to the city on Saturday to meet him and remained over Sunday with him.

The citizens gathered in numbers at the station and cheered him heartily as he stepped from the train. Scout Master Brown had his well trained Boy Scouts paraded at the platform. He was presented with an address from Rev. G. W. Miller on behalf of the town and then taken in Mayor Hales car to his home at the head of a long procession.

Private Davidson has nobly done his duty in this war and returns with the loss of one limb. He looks very well after his suffering and trying ordeal in hospital and comes home to be acclaimed and heartily thanked for his efforts by his loyal fellow citizens.

PRIVATE CHARLES FARRIS

While Wolfville rejoices over the wounded and disabled one who returns she also mourns the death of another, who freely gave his life for his country's good. Private Charles Farris has made the supreme sacrifice and not again will his manly figure and pleasing countenance again be seen by his many friends. In far away France he fills a soldiers grave. He died in action and the sad news came last week to his sorrowing parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Farris. God comfort them in their bereavement.

OUR TROOPS ARE IN AVION
The Canadian at Sundown Last Night Were More Than Half Way Through the Town

Canadian Headquarters in France, June 28, via London (By Stewart Loyn, Special Correspondent of the Canadian Press)—Fighting their way forward, amid a labyrinth of ruined houses, over which the smoke of battle hung densely, the Canadians at sundown tonight were more than half way through Avion. The attack which was the second in twenty-four hours, was made in conjunction with the British troops, all of whom north, our hold upon Reservoir Hill was made absolute by the gallant advance of the British soldiers, who went forward without check, despite heavy enemy shelling.

The German trenches on the eastern side were occupied within half an hour after the attack began. Throughout the day there had been incessant artillery activity. The Germans kept Comlette and Lens-Arras road under shrapnel fire throughout the afternoon, evidently to make difficult the assemblage of troops for further advance into Avion. Their former front line, on the out skirt of Avion, was also hammered with high explosives, and considerably damaged.

Our guns did much counter-battery work to the east of Lens, where most of the enemy's guns are now located. There was a comparative calm for a short time before seven o'clock. When the appointed time came on a front of many miles from the Scarpe to a point well to the north of the Souchez River hundreds of guns opened in a terrific cannonade. Soon Reservoir Hill, Lens itself, Avion and the region to the south, were hidden behind almost an impenetrable veil of smoke from bursting shells. Amid this the infantry, who had remained inactive throughout the day, amid the grueling fire, went forward.

Joseph Aldred of the 112th Battalion has returned from England to his home in Margareville.

The death occurred at the residence South Ashburnham, Mass., on Monday, June 11th, 1917, of John Payzant Neily a native of Cambridge Kings Co. He leaves to mourn their loss a widow and one son. Also two sisters and one brother. Mrs. Harry Brown of Medicine Hat Alta., Miss S. B. Taylor of Waterville, Kings Co., and James R. of Cambridge.

A GOOD AND SUFFICIENT REASON FOR OTHERS AS WELL AS HON.
A. K. MACLEAN

St. John Globe: Hon A. K. MacLean, Liberal M.P. for Halifax, who supports the Conscription Bill and opposes a referendum, made an unanswerable argument for Canadian participation in the war when he referred to the fact that a fellow countryman and a fellow-member (Hon. Dr. Beland), is today languishing in a German military prison, was arrested in Belgium, a country where he had a right to be, and by a nation which had no right to be there —by a burglar and criminal nation — Germany. If there were no other reason for Canada being at war, the arrest and detention of Dr. Beland as a prisoner of war would constitute a reason and one which should make as strong an appeal to French as to other Canadians.

You Can Live Without Music, but Not so Well

Darwin lived to regret that he lost a great source of happiness by not developing his love for music. He realized at last that music-deafness was worse than color blindness because it is inexcusable.

Moonlight tumbling the trees over into a wavering reflection on the waters of a lake, the drip and dip of a passing paddle, a little wind playing hide and seek in the leaves of a silver birch — we can do without all these things, but we are happier to have them. And so it is with music.

Especially if with its sources it makes a double appeal to the ear and eye — as the music of the Heintzman Grand does. What possession of such a piano would mean to you—to your children—you can guess when you see it in other homes of refinement. Come, in the difference between its one and the tone of an upright will be a revelation to you.
