IT'S OVER NOW.

It's over now, the shouting's past, And we can sleep in peace at last. [ing, Hands that shook have stopped their shak-Hearts that hoped have started aching. The shouts, the yells, the deafening chee The hoots, the groans, de isive jeers, The men who vote and do not pray, The men who prayed and stayed away: Those who won and those lost, Those who bear the brunt of cost; The torch that made the evening day Then flickered out in dark decay; The rocket, hissing eye of light, That searched the darkness of the night. The band that got on the biggest toot, The rooter who did the loudest root; The man who won and had his say, The man who lost and hid away— It's over now, the yowling's past, And we can sleep in peace at last.
And those who have a tale of woe,
The chap who says "I told you so"
The man who won, the man who's glad
The chap who's licked most awful bad—
Soon we'll all be friends again, [been.
And we'll never think of the might-have-

RETURNS TO BROCKVILLE.

After an absence from home for over 30 years the Brockville and Elizabethtown Agricultural Fair has decided to do as the prodigal, whose history is given in the great book, when he arrived at the wise conclusion to arise in his manhood and return to his father's house where there was plenty to guarantee comfcrt. The public vote was taken on the question of Unionville or Brockville on Monday last. The statutes define the qualification of voters to be two years standing as a member. Under it the possible vote was 122. Of this number only 50 embraced the golden privilege and of that number 49 voted Brockville, only one vote being cast for Unionville. But little interest was manifested as to holding it when it was known that the ville.

The first meeting in connection with the removal will be held in Brockville on June 17th in the council cham-

The Giant's Organ.

One of the most interesting feature of the Giant's causeway is "the giant's organ." This huge "instrument" con sists of a group of pillars of various lengths set apart on the side of the main cliff. The larger columns being in the center and the smaller ones tapering off on either side after the fashion of organ pipes admirably sustain the idea which the name "giant's organ"

Odd Drinking Cups. When every man got drunk and was proud of it in olden days, much ingenuity was expended in the construction of queer and elaborate drinking vessels, and many such are yet to be found in museums, especially in Ger-
