At first sight one might have suspected that the two were seeing things in the store, but they weren't. The dancing in the they weren't. The dancing in the hall above was causing the big plate glass window to vibrate very rapidly, and its motion was so rapid as to almost threaten destruction to the

Jas. Thomson, of Harwich, will sell his household furniture, farm stock and imples ments as advertised elsewhere. The Liberal meeting at Charing Cross last night was addressed by Ald. Stephens, Dr. Samson and E. E. Parrott. The gathering was well attended and the speakers received a good hearing.

good hearing. MR. M'GUGAN INJURED. A. D. McGugan, Liberal candidate for West Elgin, was badly injured Tuesday night by being kicked by one of his own horses while unharnessing the animal in the stable. He was struck by both the animals hind feet in the back, injuring his hip and spine. His injuries were attended to by Dr. Dortand and he was able to attend the nomination by going around on crutches and being helped in and out of his rig.

We are pleased to learn that the Rev. Mr. McCosh is improving in health and will probably be able to return to Chatham in about two weeks. The Rev. BURIED TREASURE FOUND.,

Hamilton, Nov. 2.—A find of about 50 pounds of valuable old silver plate was made in Harvey park yesterday. There were about 400 pieces of it, valued at hundreds of dollars. It is supposed the plate was buried in the park by a robber unable to carry it away, and has fail-to return for it. The stuff was buried beneath sods, which were being taken up to make a driveway. If no owner turns up to claim it the plate will be up to make a driveway. If no owned turns up to claim it the plate will be placed in Dundurn park museum.

A. I. McCALL & CO. DRUGGISTS.

That He is Still a Reformer and Support Mr. Stephens.

To The Planet,—Several gentlemen have come to me and stated that they had heard, and the general impression seemed to be, that although I have always and consistently supported the Liberal party heretofore. I now proposed to turn my coat and vote the other way simply because Mr. Geo. Stephens, the Liberal candidate, happens to be opposed to us in business. Will you kindly permit me to state most emphatically that there is not one word of truth in this report. Mr. Smith, for whom I have a strong personal regard, and my many Conservative friends will not misunderstand me when I state that my whole support in this election will be given to the Laurier Government and that my vote will be east in favor of Mr. Geo. Stephens, the Liberal candidate, and the fact that we may be in opposition. the fact that we may be in opposition in business does not concern this mat

To me, George Stephens, the Liberal candidate, is one man (and a good one), and George Stephens, the Chatham merchant, is another. The situation is summed up briefly in the advertisement of my company, which appears in another column. Faithfully yours.

ROBT. GRAY.

The Wm. Gray & Sons Co., Limited. Chatham, Nov. 2, 1900. Note-We are sorry to see a citizen of Mr. Gray's intelligence, ability and progressiveness apparently taking the view that his responsibility as an elector is purely individual, and that he ignores the fact that he has, in his charge, to a great extent, the intere ests of the several hundreds of men employed in his factory. When Archie Campbell ran in Kent in 1896 he made the people a number of promises. Among others who took him at his word were the majority of the farming community. Mr. Campbell was successful. It then developed that Mr. Campbell, M. P., had more sympathy for the interests of Mr. Campbell, miller, than he had for the farmers of Kent. Hence, for the benefit of Mr. Campbell, miller, Mr. Campbell, M. P., aided and abetted in the removal of the duty on corn and the material reduction of the duty on wheat and other cereals. Now, are we to suppose that Mr. Stephens, the politician, will act any differently towards Mr. Stephens, the merchant? If Mr. Stephens, the merchant, finds that the abolition or reduction of duty on carriages, wagons, harness, etc., will enable him to absorb the entire local business of the Gray & Sons Co., the Wagon Works, Milner's and other factories, isn't it quite likely that he will apply to Mr. Stephens, M. P., (provided that gentleman is elected), to have these articles put on the free list? And Mr. Stephens, M. P., would not have the least trouble in obliging Mr. Stephens, merchant, if the Laurier Government happens to be in power, because Mr. Sifton stands lettered terthe people of the West to make wagons and carriages free, provided they sustain the Government. That such abolition of duty would injure Mr. Gray's business we do not think is open to dispute. Were he the only one to suffer by it, his course in sticking to his party would be heroic. But he has several hundred employes. They, in proportion, will suffer with Mr. Gray. What right has be to gratify his own party inclinations and endanger the bread and butter of these men? Instead of following the course he outlines in his letter, his duty to his employes should lead him to put aside all personal considerations and endeavor by every effort to ward off this danger to several of Chatham's leading industries.-El. Planet. Like Tearing the Heart Strings.—"It is not within the concep-tion of man to measure my great sufferings from heart disease. For years I endured almost constant cutting and tearing pains about my heart, and many a time would have welcomed death.
