PORT WILLIAMS AND VICINITY

Mrs. N. H. Newcombe returned on Saturday from Bridgetown, where she attended the funeral of her uncle, the late John E. Quirke, Esq.

Mrs. Bedford Chase is visiting in Halifax, the guest of her daughters, Mrs. K. Hibbert, and Mrs. Mosher.

Messrs. R. S. Hockin, Theron Healey (Church Street) and John Cogswell (Belcher Street) have recently had radio sets installed in their homes.

Miss Vera Porter, of Yarmouth, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Eldridge.

Mr. Harold Chipman arrived home on Tuesday from Boston, where he had been for medical treatment the past few weeks.

Mr. Robert Watson, who underwent a serious operation at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, has returned to his home after an absence of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixon Regan are relieving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mrs. Stephen Kidston returned from Boston on Friday where she had been visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. R. S. Hockin entertained a number of friends from Wolfville and Kentville on Friday evening at Bridge—seven tables. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. Harold Norton, who suffered a painful accident of being kicked on the knee by a steer, is again able to be around.

Mrs. Jos. Healey, of Church Street, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. North, at Canim.

Mr. Edson Griffin, who has been in Halifax attending the Poultry Show, was successful in carrying off some prizes on his poultry.

A number of friends gathered on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Morine to give them a surprise party. The old home has been newly decorated and is most artistic in its arrangements. Practical gifts in the way of canned fruit, jellies, pickles, etc., were given to the newly weds and a most enjoyable evening spent with refreshments at the close.

Quarantine was placed on the house of Mr. Fred Wood on account of his little son, Ralph Elliot, having a mild case of diphtheria.

The "Get Together" Club in Church Street had its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Eldridge on Tuesday, twenty members being present. A delightful social hour was spent with work and entertainment, after which refreshments were served.

Toys

Kiddies gurgle and scream with delight at the many new and novel toys Santa has left here for them!

The old stand-bys are here, too—with their new adaptations to interest the modern child.

Toys for amusement.
Toys for education.
Toys for exercise.

You never saw so many to gladden the children's hearts.

Come in and see them while the stock is complete.

PORT WILLIAMS

The regular monthly meeting of the "Kings Daughters" S. S. class met at the home of Mrs. Sims. The business consisted of making plans for the Christmas Bazaar, followed by the entertainment program. Later refreshments were served by Mrs. Sims' daughters, Mrs. Wm. Graves and Miss Sims.

Mrs. T. E. Lydiard, of Kentville, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Chase.

Messrs. Lloyd Jess, Irvin Gates, Mason and Paul Cogswell, Bernette Goadley, Ross and Earl Graves, attended the sessions of the Tuxis Boys Conference at Wolfville. Irvin Gates was elected Grand Pretor of the conference, filling the position in a very creditable manner.

A large number attended on Monday the funeral in Greenwich of the late Rev. R. H. Bishop, who had been a member of the Baptist church here since coming to reside with his sister, the late Mrs. Jessie Borden, Belcher Street, some seven years ago. He was a man greatly loved by all who knew him. The "fruits of the spirit" were exemplified in his Christian life, day by day. Four of his brothers in the church, Messrs. O. G. Cogswell, S. L. Gates, B. G. Lantz and A. B. Rand, tenderly laid the body to rest in the old Cemetery at Wolfville. Pastor Chipman conducted the service, assisted by Drs. Marshall and MacDonald. The hymns were chosen by the deceased. "Blessed Assurance" "How Firm a Foundation" "Abide With Me", sung by the Port Williams Quartette.

GREENWICH ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hennigar attended the wedding of the latter's sister, Miss Erma Eisenhauer, at her home in Canaan on Thursday evening, Nov. 19th. She married Mr. Eldon Hennigar, of Greenwich Ridge.

Mrs. Lee Bishop and little daughter Doris is visiting this week at the home of her sisters, Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Lohnes, in Windsor.

On Friday morning, Rev. Raleigh Bishop passed away at his home here after only a few days illness, but very suddenly, as the day before he was thought to be better. He was one of our oldest residents, but owing to his quiet home life, not well known in the community, but loved by all who did know him. His was a rare, thoroughly Christian character, and lived so every day of his life; and, as has been said of him, his face with its saintly expression was one to be remembered, and his patient life was an inspiration to all. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the home, being largely attended.

A number of our young boys attended the first meeting of the Tuxis Boys Convention held in Wolfville on Friday evening. Even though not members they enjoyed it all.

Rev. D. B. Hemmeon, D.D., gave a most interesting address here on Sunday afternoon, on the line of the Boys' Council. His subject referred to Ab-salam also, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The children of the Sunday School enjoyed a nice bass solo on Sunday afternoon, sung by Mr. Turple by request. Mr. Turple, who is a member of the choir here, also had leading parts in the splendid cantata, "The Beautiful City", given by the Baptist choir at their church in New Minas Sunday evening.

Many from here motored and walked to Wolfville on Sunday evening and enjoyed to the full the large meeting of the Tuxis Boys held there at College Hall.

Mr. Elmer Hennigar met with an accident to his car on Sunday morning, while he and the members of his family were crossing the dyke on the way to the church at Port Williams. The steering gear broke and his car went into the ditch head first. None of the occupants were hurt and Mr. Hennigar had the car towed up to his home in the afternoon by one of Mr. G. Gates' big teams. Mrs. George L. Bishop is still confined to her bed but is some better, her friends are glad to learn.

Mr. Aleck Andrew, who had a vacation of two weeks, has returned to his duties in the Bank of Nova Scotia, Kentville.

Dr. Clarence Davis, of Boston, arrived on Monday morning in time to attend the funeral of his step-father, the late Rev. Raleigh Bishop, returning to his home on Wednesday.

A number of the ladies of the place met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Forsythe on Monday evening to make arrangements about the pie social to be held at the Hall here on Thursday evening, proceeds in aid of the church.

FIELDS COVERED WITH DANDELIONS

TORONTO, Nov. 23.—Fields near Milton, in Halton County, are covered with dandelions, thanks to the recent belmy weather, and there are yet plenty of buds and green berries on the bushes. Miss Eva Allison picked a bowl of ripe red raspberries in her garden on Saturday.

DRESSES

Reconciling a low price with a dress to please the critical feminine eye is by no means an easy task. That we have achieved it is due to a fortunate combination of circumstances—pretty flares, contrasting panels, slip through ties, pleats and high collars all in bright colors.

The Adjusto Overshoe

The Choice of well dressed women.

Made up in Jersey Cloth $4.50 a pr.

Stylish, practical, and most convenient, the Adjusto Overshoe has no equal—last season we simply couldn't keep up with the demand. It is the regulation height but has two buckles, and three dome adjustable fasteners at the top. It can be put on and taken off in a twinkling.

8-TONS OF HARD COAL at $10.00 = $128.

8-TONS OF SOFT COAL at $8.00 = $64.

SAVE $60.00
on Your winter's fuel—

THINK what $60.00 will buy this winter—a new dress or winter coat, a new suit, new outfits for the children, new bedding—two dozen pairs of silk stockings—forty trips to the show for the whole family.

By installing a Gilson "Magic"—the new furnace built of Tungsten Plate—you can make this saving this winter. It burns soft coal just as well as ordinary furnaces burn hard coal. New idea grate, patented air-blast, and other features enable it to burn all the gases, smoke and soot—turns chimney waste into HEAT.

The first and only satisfactory soft coal furnace ever built—costs less to buy—less to install—less to use. Will burn hard coal, coke or wood as efficiently as soft coal. See me at once—get full details without obligation.
