3 days of good music FREE

YOU can take your own time deciding whether you like the Amberola. You don't have to listen to skillful sales talk in a store—you can sit quietly at home, play the Amberola, and decide for yourself.

Mr. Edison has directed us to deliver to your home absolutely free, a and any twelve Amberol records you may select. Play the Amberola all you wish, for three days—notice its rich mellow music—think what the permanent Diamond Point Reproducer saves you in trouble and expense of changing needles. Compare the Amberola with any of the so-called "talking-machines."

NEW DIAMOND AMBEROLA

If, after this trial, you decide not to keep the Amberola, we will call for it and thank you for giving it the opportunity of proving itself the world's greatest phonograph value. But if you feel that the Amberola and good music should have a permanent place in your home, you can keep this perfect instrument on the easiest of payment plans.

Come in and select your Amberola today—write or phone if more convenient.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Christmas falling on Sunday, was observed very quietly. Special addresses and music were given in all local churches, and every one handed out the glad mitt and the merry gurgle after the morning service, in pleasant anticipation of the coming feast in store for everybody.

The local branch of the Provincial Red Cross played Santa Claus to the Soldiers at the East St. John Hospital to the tune of ten large Christmas packages.

The Christmas concert held on Monday evening in the U. B. church was well attended and much enjoyed by all. At the conclusion of the concert program a well laden tree was stripped by Santa Claus and all the youngsters present received many gifts. Lists had been prepared by which each boy or girl was delegated to procure a gift for some other, and in this manner no one had a chance of not being remembered.

A few from here attended the horse trot held at Robinson on Saturday.

Russel Kennedy arrived home from Halifax on Wednesday and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Kennedy at the Kennedy House.

Lee Good of Monticello will begin a series of special evangelistic services in the U. B. church on Sunday, Jan. 1.

A number of our citizens are on the sick list with a variety of "all the flu that flesh is heir to." We can only wish them bon voyage through the Valley of Sneezes.

People would be well repaid if they saved their B. V. D's until next summer instead of wearing them out now.

Wilmot Weade arrived home from Wolfville on Thursday and will spend his vacation with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Harold.

Mrs. F. M. Brown, who has been visiting friends in St. John, arrived home on Friday.

So hospitable are the Centreville people that the Great Now and Then, which is scheduled to arrive at 10 p. m., was so burdened with incoming Christmas visitors on Christmas eve, that it failed to tot for the station until 4:30 the following morning. Having made no Pullman reservations these Yuletide immigrants were sure tired and sleepy.

Miss Hildred DeLone arrived from Sackville on Friday and will spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norris Delong.

While speeding his driver on the ice Thursday, Sam Cormier having the misfortune to collide with an opposing racer sleigh was thrown out and luckily escaped with a shaking up and a few minor injuries.

On Jan. 1 Rev. H. E. Bell will preach in Lakeville at 3 p. m. Service Band from Centreville will conduct service at Good Corner at 3 p. m. (instead of 7 p. m.). Mr. Lee Good will preach in the U. B. church at Centreville at 11 a. m., 3 p. m. and 7 p. m. Come and hear!
