Presentation to Miss Harrison

The Summerside Journal of the 28th ult. has the following:

"At the close of the evening service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, a short social singing service was held, the occasion being in honor of Miss Alice M. Harrison, who has resigned her position as organist and choir director, the duties of which she has faithfully and most capably discharged for over three years. After a few solos which were beautifully rendered by members of the choir, Rev. H. J. Fraser, on behalf of the choir and congregation addressed Miss Harrison, and complimented her highly upon the most able manner in which she had directed the musical affairs of the church. He was profuse in his thanks for the valuable services Miss Harrison had rendered. On behalf of a few of Miss Harrison's friends Mr. Fraser presented her with a purse of $50. Miss Harrison made a most suitable reply. She said she had been happy in her work and greatly regretted the necessity of leaving Summerside. Mr. Neil McLeod, K. C., addressed a few appropriate remarks which were most complimentary to Miss Harrison. Miss Harrison will be greatly missed in Summerside, especially in musical circles. During her stay here she has worked hard and well for every good cause—and with a thought of reward, and all will join with the Journal in wishing Miss Harrison every happiness in her new home.

Letter From Col. Mersereau

A letter received by Mayor Fish from Lt. Col. Mersereau is being held till next week owing to a pressure for advertising space. Col. Mersereau says he requires 100 more stalwart men from the Miramichi.

HYMENEAL

Harrison-Smith

The Vancouver World of the 13th ult. has the following: "Very quiet, but exceptionally pretty was the marriage which was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock last evening at the Kilsilano Methodist church, when Vera Louise, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Smith, of 2486 Third Avenue West, was united in marriage to Mr. William Harrison, of Halifax, N. S. The guests included only members of the family, but a number were present to do the honor to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. G. G. Brown, pastor of the church. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Reta Smith, as bridesmaid and Mr. Harold Crosby acted as groomsmen. Little Master, Lorne Kyle, a tiny nephew of the bride, made a sweet little ring-bearer. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Preceding the ceremony the "Bridal Chorus" was played by Mrs. Galpin, and during the ceremony the beautiful solo, "Love's Coronation," was sung by Miss Eura Leeson. After a short visit at the coast Mr. and Mrs. Harrison will leave for Halifax, where they will make their future home. The bride's numerous friends regret that her marriage means her removal from the city, as she has a large number of friends among whom she has been very popular."

Mr. Harrison above mentioned is a son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Harrison of Newcastle, who leaves this week to take charge of the Methodist church at Marystown.

By profession Mr. Harrison is an electrical engineer and has been in the employ of the Canadian Westinghouse company for several years.

Campbell-Cornish

The marriage took place on June 25th at St. Luke's parsonage, Chatham, of Miss Lillian M. Cornish, daughter of Mr. J. T. Cornish, of Chatham, to Mr. Alex. Campbell, of Lower Napan, Rev. Mr. Pinkerton, assisted by Rev. W. B. Roseborough, of Loggieville, officiating. The bride was dressed in ivory satin, veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by Miss Lillian Whitehouse, who wore white voile with pink silk and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Lee Gillis. After the ceremony the party repaired to the bride's home where a sumptuous supper was served. The groom's present to the bride was a gold wrist watch, and to the bridesmaid a gold brooch; to the groom a pair of gold cuff links. The bride's present to the groom was a pearl stick pin. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents, including gold, silver, cut glass and cheese. The happy couple will reside in Lower Napan.

Morrison-McKnight

A very pretty wedding took place at Dunstaffnage, Chatham, on Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Annie N., daughter of the late Alexander McKnight of Lower Napan, was united in marriage to Robert Morrison, Burnt Church. The bride looked charming in a travelling suit of blue with hat to match. The principal were unattended, Rev. D. Henderson performed the ceremony, and immediately thereafter the happy couple drove to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was given to a large circle of friends and luncheon served. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison will reside at Burnt Church, where they will be at home after August 1st. Many beautiful presents were received.

Moore-Goss

At Campbellton at the home of the bride's parent Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goss, on Thursday morning, June 29 their only daughter, Florentina Phillips, was united in marriage to Samuel Edward Moore of Amherst, N. B., formerly of Woodstock, N. B.

Closing Exercises Bamford School

The public examination was held on the afternoon of June 29th. Quite a number of visitors were present. An interesting program of songs, recitations, drills, etc., was effectively carried out by the children in the Primary Department, under the direction of Miss Stohart, the teacher. After these exercises a few words were spoken by the visitors on the school and the progress of the scholars. Parent-teacher Associations were touched on and the need for more cooperation between the school and the home. After singing God Save the King and partaking of a treat kindly furnished by the trustees, the visitors departed and the school was dismissed.

The Miramichi Hospital Officially Opened

Many People Visit the New Building and Gratefully Admire the Beneficence of Mr. Ernest Hutchinson, the Donor--The Speeches

A goodly number of citizens of Newcastle and Chatham and many residents of the county, assembled Saturday afternoon to inspect the new Miramichi Hospital, and honor its donor and builder, Mr. Ernest Hutchinson, of Douglstown, by attending the public opening of that institution. All present were shown over the building from basement to topmost story and expressed themselves surprised and delighted with the perfection of the building and the thoroughness of its equipment, and realized as never before the meaning and value of Mr. Hutchinson's princely gift to the people of his native county.

Shortly after three o'clock the chair was taken on the spacious balcony of the Hospital by W. A. Park, chairman of the Hospital Board. The balcony was filled with guests of the day--the Hospital, Town and County Officials, and others, with their ladies--while the rest of the multitude were grouped on the Hospital steps and the wide lawn in front, where all could plainly hear the voices of the speakers.

W. A. Park

Mr. Park said that many of those present could remember the first day of the Dominion, and had watched it growing ever since. He could not be accused of boasting when he said that we had a county equal to any in the world. Not only were our natural resources varied and inexhaustible, but we had the right kind of men. Our young men had gone forward unflinchingly to do their duty in the great war and we were proud of them. We were proud of the leading men of the country. All the men who have made money were doing something for the good of the people. All were proud of the man who built the Hospital, and were proud of the many in the Dominion who were likewise helping. It was a little over a year ago when the corner stone of this building had been laid. The whole work since had been done under the personal supervision of Mr. Hutchinson. No contractor had had charge. The building was one of the best in Canada, and a great boon to the community.

On behalf of the Citizens.

(Sgd.) W. A. PARK.

G. PERCY BURCHILL,

A. J. FERGUSON,

JOSEPH MCKNIGHT,

HOWARD WILLISTON,

Committee.

Newcastle, N. B., July 1st, 1916.

Hon. L. J. Tweedie

Hon. L. J. Tweedie replied for Mrs. Hutchinson.

He regretted that Mr. Hutchinson was not present to receive what was his just due--the address, which was couched in language not a bit extravagant but strictly true. A larger heart was developing all over Canada. Today the teaching of the Nazarene Carpenter's son was more evident than ever they were. Mr. Hutchinson did not wish any thanks or expect any fulsome flattery. But he has made this offering to the public out of the goodness of his heart. It would help the county, help the physicians, who have not had the opportunity of having operating rooms, etc., near their homes. On behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson, he thanked the Committee for the address, and the people for their attendance at the opening ceremonies. He (Tweedie) hoped the people would now take care of the hospital without further assistance from the donor, but if such assistance were really needed, Mr. Hutchinson would still be ready to help.

There was no better gift to the public than a hospital. The poor had not been able to always get proper attention, but now no reason why they should not receive the greatest benefit from this institution and feel the greatest gratitude to the donor. The thanks of Newcastle, the whole county and the whole North Shore were due the latter. There was no hospital in the whole province that excelled or equalled the gift of Mr. Hutchinson today. It was the greatest gift N. B. had ever received as a hospital, and the greatest hospital erected by one man. He regretted the absence of the Governor of the province, also he was sorry the town children--the fathers and mothers of the next generation--were not present to take notice of the proceedings. Were they there, he would advise them as he had advised those of Chatham High School, to save their moving picture and candy money and endow a hospital bed for the Canadian soldiers. The Chatham pupils had sent him $53-$50 for a bed and $3 for cost of cabling the money. That was real self-denial. Mr. Park had referred to our great country, whose natal day we were now celebrating. Great progress had been made, but only the fringe of Dominion development had yet been touched. In 1867 the sum of $15,000,000 was thought sufficient to run the country. Today millions, almost billions, were being expended in the war alone. No one knew what development was in store for us. Its greatness could not be imagined.

Letters of Regret

Mr. Park read letters of regret at not being able to be present from His Honor Lt. Gov. Wood, Warden John W. McNaughton of Northumberland Co., and from Supt. Kenny of Halifax Hospital.

W. S. Loggie, M. P.

Mr. Loggie was the next speaker. He said it gave him great pleasure to attend, as it did at the laying of the corner stone last year. He congratulated the Northumberland people on having such an institution ready to welcome the afflicted from any part of the county. True there had long been a well equipped and well managed hospital in Chatham. But now there was one for the upper end of the County, as well, that would serve that section in a peculiar manner. Hospital work was philanthropic, and the whole county was to be congratulated.

Who is the hero in this country? asked Mr. Loggie. We have sent our boys, who have gone into the battle prepared to give their lives for the sake of their country. We call them heroes and rightly so, for they have offered a sacrifice for something worth while, and so had Mr. Hutchinson made a sacrifice for something worth while. The hospital was a good thing for our girls who wished to train as nurses. This county was to be congratulated on having sent forth so many nurses to the present war. They were all doing their duty nobly at the front, nursing our brave boys back to health and strength. Oh, it was worth while to suffer and die for the British flag! It was likewise worth while that Mr. Hutchinson should do this great thing for the people of Northumberland. Mr. Hutchinson was a very generous gentleman, and deserved the thanks that were being so heartily extended to him. He (Loggie) endorsed every word in the address and hoped that Mr. Hutchinson would live long to watch the hospital develop. It would be a high honor for the people of the County to render assistance in the upkeep of the institution, which he trusted, would be a blessing to the community. He wished the war were over, so that the boys and girls at the front might receive the rewards and care they deserved.

Hon. John Morrissey

Hon. Mr. Morrissey was the next speaker, and re-echoed the sentiments of the previous speakers. He was glad that the community had such a man as Ernest Hutchinson, Douglstown had sent its quota of good men all over the country--yes, all over the world; but Douglstown had had no man with a bigger heart than Ernest Hutchinson. When Mr. Hutchinson had laid the corner stone last year, there had been some suspicion of who was financing the affair. Now we know that Newcastle parish has a man with a heart big enough to do this. Mr. Hutchinson should be proud of his wife, anyway--the Miramichi wives were the best in the world. Mr. Hutchinson asked no thanks, but some people get what they do not ask for, so he must accept the thanks of the public. He must take pride in his work as he passes up and down by the hospital, and he will be able to say that while he was given the possession of money he had made good use of it.
