ENGLISH BEFAULTER ARESTED.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13.

Joseph Tapson, formerly secretary of the Matropolitan Railway Company Provident Savings' Bank, of London, was arrested in this city, last night, by two English detectives. Topson is charged with having tampered with the deposiz tors' books, appropriating to his own use £ 10,000; in the space of five years. His defalcation being discovered he fled to eed in the hands of Inspector Littlechild a Scotland Yard detecive, and Chief Inspector Goshen, of the Motropolitan Railway Company's police, who were at a loss for some time to discover any trace had been his objective point. A close surveillance was kept upon his wife, however, and it was finally discovered that she was about to depart from Liverpool for the United States on board the steam ship British Crown; bound for Philadel phia. The officers preceded the steamer anticipating that she would join her husband on arriving there. The Chief of police, Given, was notified and a sharp lookout was kept for Mrs. Tapson and the Philadelphia officers succeeded 1. finding that she had taken up her quar ters in the suburbs of the city-

Lieutenant Daymon and Sergeant Wol watched the house for days and were at last rewarded by seeing a man answering the description of Tapson enter on Saturday He was at once arrested. For a time he stoutly denied his identity; say ing his name was Horrison, but wh.n confronted with Inspector Goshen, who in position very nearly as favorable as knew him, he admitted that he was Jose eph Tapson. There will be a hearing before United States Commissioner Gib over to the British forces immediately after the necessary extradition papers don to stand trial.
