

FREE SCHOOLS.

Amidst many things that are disheartening... the education of the rising generation... the principles of protection and self-interest...

THE TORY PRESS AND THE BUREAU.

We might content ourselves with the explanations and opinions we have already expressed... the Tory press has been eagerly laid hold of by the disappointed Globe...

fore Parliament at its last session. Mr. Cameron expressed the same opinion... the office of the Assistant Commissioner of Public Works...

if in a case of emergency the Government saw fit to dispense with the formality... the office of the Assistant Commissioner of Public Works...

with the devolving upon the President were not such as to warrant the country in paying eight hundred pounds a year for his services...

answered by holding out his ring you "Grand Mamma." I readily admit; Sir, that thickheaded, but I am very even the cutest reader he is to discover either wit or expression...

answered by holding out his ring you "Grand Mamma." I readily admit; Sir, that thickheaded, but I am very even the cutest reader he is to discover either wit or expression...

HURON SIGNAL.

THURSDAY, FEB. 19, 1852.

In another column will be found the Address of the Honorable Malcolm Cameron to the Electors of these United Counties...

To CORRESPONDENTS.—Kirsty Forsyth's shall appear in our next.

We take pleasure in stating that the true Reformers of Toronto, are going to give the Hon. Malcolm Cameron a public dinner on the 25th inst.

We will notice Mr. Galt's Address in our next issue. In the meantime we would call the attention of our readers to a communication signed "An Elector of Huron," and a communication from Alexander Mitchell, which will be found in another column.

We had the pleasure of attending a Lecture held at the Hall of the Sons of Temperance last evening. The Lecture was delivered by Mr. William Malcom of this Town upon the merits of the Steam Engine...

TO THE ELECTORS OF HURON, PERTH AND BRUCE. GENTLEMEN:—You are aware that when I appeared before you at the late General Election I had not accepted Office, although I had been gazetted as President of the Executive Council...

DEAR SIR,—I could almost request that by my note of last week which you kindly published for truth sake, I should have caused such an exposure of the absolute dotage of your contemporary the Loyalist...

He does not say that what I stated was untrue, in fact he knows the contrary, but like any other imbecile, verging on his second childhoods, he thinks the whole is

POWER OF ENGLAND.—The London Globe furnishes us with the following interesting statistics on Europe and the Army of England...

FRANCE BETWEEN AMERICANS AND EGYPTIANS.—The correspondent of the Chronicle, writing from Alexandria, under date of the 15th ult., says: "On the 24th, the first passenger steamer for Assuan and intermediate ports, left Cairo, taking a great number of tourists, of whom a great proportion were American gentlemen..."

A PRESENT FIT FOR A QUEEN.—The Bathurst Free Press and Mining Journal says, that a body of gentlemen in Sydney, at the head of whom are the Colonial Secretary and the Speaker of the Legislative Council, have determined upon offering to the Queen of England "a crown of pure gold," an emblem of her sovereignty, and of her people's loyalty, not less than their devotion.

NEVER LET A DAY PASS WITHOUT MAKING AN EFFORT TO MAKE SOME ONE HAPPIER; EVERY SUCH EFFORT, WHETHER SUCCESSFUL OR NOT, WILL INCREASE YOUR OWN HAPPINESS.

WHEAT, bushel, Sixty pounds; Indian Corn, bushel, Fifty-two pounds; Rye, bushel, Fifty-six pounds; Peas, bushel, Sixty pounds; Barley, bushel, Forty-eight pounds; Oats, bushel, Thirty-four pounds; Beans, bushel, Fifty pounds; Tomatoes and clover seed, Sixty pounds.—Section Herald.

OUR BUREAU has far famed eloquence, in announcing the recent arrival from E. Ross.

DEAR SIR,—I could almost request that by my note of last week which you kindly published for truth sake, I should have caused such an exposure of the absolute dotage of your contemporary the Loyalist...

He does not say that what I stated was untrue, in fact he knows the contrary, but like any other imbecile, verging on his second childhoods, he thinks the whole is

DEAR SIR,—I could almost request that by my note of last week which you kindly published for truth sake, I should have caused such an exposure of the absolute dotage of your contemporary the Loyalist...

He does not say that what I stated was untrue, in fact he knows the contrary, but like any other imbecile, verging on his second childhoods, he thinks the whole is

DEAR SIR,—I could almost request that by my note of last week which you kindly published for truth sake, I should have caused such an exposure of the absolute dotage of your contemporary the Loyalist...

He does not say that what I stated was untrue, in fact he knows the contrary, but like any other imbecile, verging on his second childhoods, he thinks the whole is answered by holding out his ring you "Grand Mamma." I readily admit; Sir, that thickheaded, but I am very even the cutest reader he is to discover either wit or expression, I am sure that I He might just as well have de-dee-ee or Cock-a-doodle deed, I would not be surpris to hear him do so some fine he takes another of those an...