MASSOWAH ENDANGERED.

A dispatch from Rome says: The situation in Erythraea is very grave. Signor Franzoni, the explorer, fears that King Menelek will force his way into the triangle formed by Keren, Asmara and Massowah. If he does so the port of Massowah will be threatened.

DUTCH ATTACKED.

The Hague, March 11.—It is announced here that a Dutch military patrol has been attacked by the Achehese, near Anagaloeny, island of Sumatra. Eight Dutch soldiers were killed and five officers and 21 men were wounded. The Achehese lost six of their leaders and 37 killed and wounded.

BRITISH LIBERALS.

London, March 11.—Most of the Liberal members of the House of Commons, excepting the leaders, met in a committee room of the House yesterday, and debated the reorganization proposals of the Radical committee. It was shown that a majority of the members were opposed to the proposals. The measure will again be discussed, after the coming conference of the party at Hovefield.

STOCK BOARD STORIES.

London, March 11.—In their financial articles yesterday the city papers allude to a rumor that Mr. Rhodes would be arrested at Belra, at which port he intended to land, en route to Rhodesia, and this is given as the explanation of the decline in the price of South African mining securities. Beyond these rumors there is nothing to show that the Government intends to place Mr. Rhodes under arrest.

RIOT AT ST. KITTS.

Georgetown, British Guiana, March 11.—Reports have reached here of rioting by the laborers at St. Kitts, West Indies, spreading all over the island. The principal buildings have been burned and the stores were broken into and robbed.

The plantation managers had to escape by vessel. Several overseers were killed. An English man-of-war arrived in port Monday night, and the marines succeeded in restoring order to some degree.

A CATALAN PLOT.

A dispatch from Barcelona says: Careful investigation shows conclusively that Spanish politics have had a big hand in the Barcelona disturbances. Nearly all the inhabitants here are Catalans, who are, almost to a man, Republicans. They are heartily opposed to the present Government, and are making demonstrations here against the United States with the direct purpose of putting the Government in a hole, and possibly causing its overthrow.

MARINE MISHAPS.

London, March 11.—The British steamer Prodanova, from Baltimore, which arrived at Leith yesterday, reports that on Feb. 22, in latitude 22 degrees 37 minutes north, longitude 75 degrees west, she approached a small sail boat, containing several men. The occupants of the boat inquired their position, and stated that they did not require any assistance.

It has been found impossible to rescue the bark, which before being destroyed, ashore on Borkum Island, in the North Sea, and the vessel will prove a total loss. Arrangements are being made for the salvage of her cargo.

UNITED STATES VS. SPAIN.

London, March 11.—A pamphlet, entitled "The United States Against Spain," has been published in Madrid. Its author is Senor Vera, formerly Spanish minister at Washington. The work dilates upon the injustice of the American Congress towards Spain, and predicts that there will be a revolution of popular feeling in the United States when the truth becomes known. The writer says he expects a favorable outcome of the trouble. He eulogizes the American women, and declares he admires the American men, who, he adds, are amiable and hospitable unless they are blinded by self-esteem.

SIXPENCE A WEEK.

London, March 11.—A Constantinople correspondent telegraphs that the American donations are barely keeping alive 6,000 of the Armenian sufferers at Marash. The allotment to each person is only six pence weekly, and heeding of the place are still in prison. The correspondent describes the Liquor License Act will be received by the undersigned up to the 1st of April next, at his office, Dorchester Station, or at his Saturday office, Market Lane, London. Applications by parties or for premises not now under license must be accompanied with a petition of majority of voters in polling subdivision in which license is sought.

Liquor License Act

NOTICE.

 JOHN DURAND,
 License Inspector, East Middlesex,
 Dorchester Station, March 10, 1896. 50c

their tortures and sufferings, which were suspended when the consuls thronged to Zeitoun, but which were renewed after they had left. The refugees from Zeitoun are specially victimized by the Turks. The situation at Anitab was never more hopeless than it is now. The Governor tells the Christians that their only hope of security is to abandon their religion and become Moslems. Most of the Christians in the villages north and east of Anitab have forsaken their faith. Four thousand persons are in an abject condition.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

London, March 11.—In the House of Commons yesterday Rt. Hon. J. Chamberlain, said that there was no truth in the report of the intended arrest of Cecil Rhodes by the authorities of Cape Colony, nor had he any information that any other authorities contemplated such action. The question was brought out by the report circulated that Mr. Rhodes would be arrested on his arrival at Belra. East Africa, which caused a decided fall in the prices of South African mining securities at the London Stock Exchange.

Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, speaking with reference to the riots on the island of St. Kitts, stated that on Feb. 19 the governor wired that serious riots had broken out, and that a number of houses had been burned. Gen. Halliday, explaining the riots, had been shot. On Feb. 25 the governor sent another dispatch, saying that the island was more quiet than at any time since.

THE ADOWA DISASTER.

London, March 11.—A dispatch from Rome says that the Abyssinians lost 4,600 men in the battle of Adowa.

The Standard prints a telegram from Rome, saying that the Government has received a dispatch from Gen. Barattieri, who was superseded in the command of the Italian army in Africa by Gen. Baldissera, explaining his motive for his attack on the Abyssinians at Adowa. The provision supply of the army, he says, was becoming short, and it was extremely difficult to obtain further supplies, the roads being infested with Abyssinians. To retreat would have exposed the Italians to an attack it would have been difficult to withstand. He held a conference with the officers under him, and they concurred in his opinion that it would be safer to attack the enemy than to retreat.

COLONIAL TRADE.

London, March 11.—Lord Salisbury has addressed a letter to C. E. H. Vincent, M.P., in which he says that the government is in entire sympathy with the idea of securing the largest possible share of the neutral trade of the United Kingdom and the colonies for British producers and manufacturers, whether they may be located in the United Kingdom or the colonies. Since his accession to office, Lord Salisbury writes, the trade relations of the United Kingdom and the colonies have been seriously considered. He is aware that there is a strong feeling in the Empire as to the compensation for the risk involved.

GEN. BOOTH ON THE SITUATION.

London, March 11.—The Daily News publishes an interview with Gen. Booth in which the commander of the Salvation Army said that the cause of the difficulty in America was perfectly simple. Change was one of the principles of the army. It had been known for quite some time that a change was imminent in the commandship in the United States. When his son, Ballington Booth, objected to a change being made, he had weighed his objections and found that they were unavailing. He declared that he was heartily affected by the trouble, and that it was heart-breaking business for him. He had done all that was possible to avert the calamity, and had not ceased his efforts now. He sadly added that it was a very bitter pill. He could not understand that people were unable to comprehend the matter, and seemed to think that there was something in it.

The Chronicle publishes an interview with Gen. Booth similar to that published by the Daily News. Gen. Booth declared his belief that the trouble in the United States was a passing phenomenon. While he was alive, he added, he would do his utmost to keep it undivided.

HOLMES' DEATH WARRANT.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 11.—The death warrant, which Gov. Hastings signed for the execution of H. H. Holmes on the 7th of May, was formally read to the condemned man by Sheriff Clement on Monday. The sheriff announced that the number of witnesses to the execution would not be in excess of that of less important hangings.

Kate Tough's Death

Coroner's Jury Verdict Against William Hammond.

Hammond was a Drug Clerk and Purchased Poison.

Their Secret Marriage—The Deceased
 Was at His Home on the Evening of the Tragedy—A Mysterious Case.

Gravenhurst, Ont., March 11.—At the inquest on the body of Kate Tough last night, after several witnesses had been examined, fixing the finding of the body at about 9 o'clock beside the road, 100 yards from the girl's residence, John Bows was called and stated that he called at Hammond's house, which is nearly opposite where the unfortunate girl was found. He knocked at the door and heard Wm. Hammond coming from towards the center of the room. He had his overshoes on. Hammond came out of his father's house with the witness to help recognize the body, which Hammond did not seem to do at the time. The body was carried home, and after some delay the Grant was called and pronounced the girl dead. The girl was known to be in the best of health. A search in her room disclosed two phials, one labeled "Phosphoric Acid," and the other without label, with "Margaret Bows" written on it in the bottle. These are the druggists where Wm. Hammond was a clerk for some time.

Dr. Campbell, druggist, said he had supplied young Hammond a one-ounce bottle of hydrocyanic acid in the morning of Friday last, Hammond stating that he wished to poison some cats.

HAMMOND'S ADMISSIONS.

Wm. Hammond was next sworn and cautioned in the usual way. He admitted having purchased the prussic acid from Dr. Campbell's drug store and said that after the girl's death he had thrown it away. He admitted having seen the girl at 8 o'clock in the morning. She returned to her own room and afterwards joined him for a few minutes. When they entered his father's house no other person was present for fifteen minutes. He said that Miss Tough left for home, but was picked up 200 feet from where she left young Hammond. He admitted that they had been married at Buffalo under the assumed name of James.

THE POST-MORTEM.

The jury appointed Dr. Grant to hold a post-mortem examination. When the inquest was resumed Dr. Grant reported as follows: Externally the body exhibits no indication of any degree of violence; attitude and position of limbs not of note; rigor mortis present; the jaws are very firmly fixed; face pale, expression calm, eyes bright and cornea more transparent than usual; pupils unequally dilated; lips and mouth generally pale; heart contains fluid, comparatively bright blood without clots in it, and pericardial fluid normal; lungs congested, slightly anteriorly, much posteriorly; odor resembling prussic acid not on opening the chest; stomach distended and slightly reddened towards cardiac end
