The Lease and the Council.

The city solicitors are still working on the proposed lease of the Port Stanley road to the Lake Erie and Detroit River people, and are not expected to get through until to-day. This means that the council will not meet to-night. After the lease has been drawn up Mr. Hope, of Hamilton, and Mr. Leggatt, of Walkerville, the counsel for the L. E. and D. R. Company, will come here and look after the interests of their clients. Then when everything is adjusted satisfactorily to both parties the lease will be printed and distributed to the aldermen. After they have had 24 hours to look it over a meeting of the council will be called. From present appearances this cannot be done with Montangarances with Targeta pickt.

Kichard Bassett, a laborer at Leonard's Kichard Bassett, a laborer at Leonard's, living at 9 Smith street, this city, was killed Wednesday. He was driving in with a load of wood from the country in the evening in company with his two sons and his brotherin-law, Mr. Joliffe. While driving down a steep hill near Plewes' mill on the Hamilton road the weight of the load pushed the horses too hard. Bassett went to hold the horses' heads. He stumbled and fell and the lead of wood toppled over on him. His sons found him in the dark and extricated him from the wood. He was gasping, and in five minutes died, without speaking a word. Dr. Gardiner was notified, but of course it was too late. The body was brought home. Deceased, who was past middle age, leaves a widow and a large family.

A Fireman's Fall.

Fireman James Riddle, of the Central Station, had a narrow escape from death Wednesday afternoon while repairing the line. He was working upon the top of a pole at the corner of Simcoe and Henry streets when the pole broke close to the ground. Mr. Riddle fell with the pole and struck on a picket fence. The fence was broken, but strange to rolate none of Mr. Riddle's bones were. He was badly injured, however, and was removed to a neighboring house and two doctors summoned. His injuries are in the nature of bruises, extending from the left hip to the shoulder. He also received a bad blow over the kidneys. Mr. Riddle was removed in the wagon to his home on King street, where he will be confined for some time to come. Firemen state that those occurrences are altogether too frequent, and they often have to risk their life on rotten poles.
