REEVE-BERRY. A very pleasant event occurred on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berry, London township, when their second daughter. Miss Annie, was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. H. Reeve, of London township, by Rev. T. E. Harrison, of London. At the hour of 7 o'clock, while the wedding march was being played by Miss Laura Kirk, of Woodham, the bride entered the drawing-room leaning on the arm of her father. She booked charming in a traveling suit of bive cloth trimmed with white silk, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The bride was attended by Miss Lavina Reeve, sister of the groom, and she was attired in green cloth, trimmed with chiffon and satin, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and roses. Mr. John Berry, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The wedding presents formed a beautiful collection, being both numerous and costly, showing the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held. There were guests frem Bay City and Ridgetown and other places in attendance. The young couple left amid showers of rice and good wishes on a wedding tour to Ridgetown and Sarnia. FUNERAL OF THE LATE P. C.

WICER The funeral of the late P. C. Robert Weir took place yesterday afternoon, and the large and representative attendance was an evidence of the esteem in which the departed policeman was held by all classes of citizens. The Ancient Order of United Workmen, the Canadian Order of Foresters, the A., F. and A. M., and the police force were all represented, and from each body two pallbearers were selected. The police department was about 30 strong, and presented a splendid appearance, being under the command of Liszt Six Paganini Caprices Chief Williams.

Rev. C. C. Owen, rector of Memorial Church, conducted a short service at the family residence, corner of Adelaide street and Dufferin avenue. Among the immediate friends and relataves of the family present were the, late Mr. Weir's sister, Mrs. Marshall, of Michigan, and Mr. James Watts, Midland, Mich., a brother-in-law. The handsome casket was literally covered with floral offerings, among them being a beautiful "Gates Ajar," from members of the police force.

At the Memorial Church, a large congregation assembled for the short pub-lic service. The casket was placed rall, and many availed themselves of the opportunity of a last look at their departed friend. The interment took place at Mount Pleas-

After full jusce had been done to the substantial and succelent repast provided, the chairman, Mr. W. H. Snelgrove, senior freshman, introduced the long and varied toast list. After a few opening remarks the regular formal toast to Her Majesty, the Queen, "Canada," "Our South African Heroes," "The Faculty," etc, were drunk and responded to by members of the faculty, then collowed a long list of inform: toasts, to which responses were made by the various students. A rule had Mrs. Gahan referred feelingly to the been made that anyone uttering a sensible remark should be ejected from the room, and as no ejections took place, some idea may be formed of the qualsty of the speeches delivered. The last toast. "The Freshmen." was responded to by Mr. B. P. Fuller in an eloquent appreciative speech. The oratorical efforts of the speakers were interspersod with songs and parodies by Messis. Farney and Carlisle, and with recitations by Mr. H. W. Snell. Mr. Eills acted as accompanist, and was tendered a vote of thanks. The singing of "Auld Lang Syne" brought the evening's enjoyment to a close.

Friedheim possesses perhaps in a greater degree than any of the foremost pianists the quality of soul, the quality which enables him to dehis message from the masters with the fervor and inspiration of a true prophet. In none of his numbers were his brilliancy and power of execution more evident than in magic witchery of the "Moonlight' Sonate." though all his numbers were such perfect gems of their kind that particularization is impossible. So enthralled were the audience with the masterly playing of the last number on the programme, the Liszt Rhap-sodie, No. 6, that not a soul moved until the planist had responded with a transcription of "The Erl King."
