interesting Story of a Lady Well Known in the City.

After Two Years of Suffering She Ha Fully Regained Her Health, and Tells Her Story That Others May Be Bene fited-The Testimony of a Leading

From the Halifax Critic.

Camille Fiammarion, the great French atronomer, in his new story "Omega; or The Last Days of the World," which is now being published in the Cosmopolitan Magazine, gives the press of the future a very hard hit. Whether or not the great astronomer may be right in his view of the press of the 24th century, one thing is certain, the world of to-day is more largely indebted to the press for efforts to promote the highest civilization than to any other human agency. Great discoveries in all branches of scientific research are chronicled with a faithfulness that enables the multitudes to enjoy to the greatest extent the benefits accruing therefrom. The newspapers of our land have for many months past contained accounts of miraculous cures affected through the agency of that marvelous medicine known to the world as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. A large number of these stories have been published in the columns of The Critic, and have no doubt been read by the majority of our readers with full assurance of the truthdulness thereof, and yet we imagine there have been a few who have doubted, and who have not been so much interested in the experiences of people miles away from Nova Scotia as in those of their own province. Now, however, The Critic can give an account of a perfect cure, the facts of which we can guarantee as being true in every particular.

"I understand, Mrs. Ainslie, that you yourself manufacture a medicine which is highly spoken of."
"Yes," said the lady, "I do. My dyspepsia cordial is well known in Nova Scotia, and even further away." This struck us as a case in which "physician, heal thyself," might have been applied, but it goes to prove that Dr. Williams! Pink Pills have a power to strike to the root of disease that other medicines, le they ever so good in their place, have not. After thanking Mrs. Ainslie for her kindness in giving us the above hearty recommendation. thanking Mrs. Ainslie for her kindness in giving us the above hearty recommendation of the medicine, we proceeded to interview Mr. Hamilton, of Messrs. Brown Bros. & Co., druggists, of this city, from whom Mrs. Ainslie had purchased the Pink Pills. Mrs. Ainsile had purchased the Pink Pills. This course was taken not that we in the least doubted the statements made by Mrs. Ainsile, but simply to satisfy any skeptical ones among the readers of The Critic, who, not being acquainted with the lady, might feel that they would like assurance made doubly sure. Mr. Hamilton said he vemembered Mrs. Ainsile when she purchased the first box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She was then much debilitated and had been very ill. He also remembered her coming to him when she had taken a half dozen boxes and testifying both by her words and appearance to the good they had accomplished in hor case. Mr. Hamilton stated that they were very frequently hearing from their customers of the wonderful beneficial results of the treatment, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, of Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. In the case of men they offect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of offect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of any nature. These Pills are not a purgative medicine. They contain only life-giving properties and nothing that could injure the most delicate system. They act directly on the blood, supplying its life-giving qualities by assisting it to absorb oxygen, that great supporter of all organic life. In this way the blood, becoming 'built up' and being supplied with its lacking constituents, becomes rich and red, nourishes the various organs, stimulating them to activity in the performance of their functions and thus eliminates diseases from the system.

A man named Dan Young was brought to Chatham from Camden township, where he has lived for a year, latterly in the employ of S. Northeote, con. 7, River road. Young was committed to jail as a dangerous lunatic. Sunday night he took a fit in the Salvation Army barracks at Dresden, and since then has had recurrences of the paroxysms. While in the fit he has had to be tied, for he barks like a dog and bites at any object within reach. Fifteen years ago in England Young was bitten by a mad dog. It is thought that now the effects of the bite have developed, and that the unfortunate man is suffering from genuine hydrophobia.
