MUSIC AND DRAMA.

MAX O'REILLY AGAIN.
"Her Royal Highness, Woman," is the quaint title of the lecture in which the witty French writer, Max O'Reilly, describes the foibles and virtues of the fair sex, and there will be no doubt be many anxious to hear how he will deal with the subject. It is said to be a masterpiece of composition, which suffers nothing in its rendition at the hands of the author. He will deliver it at the Opera House on the evening of January 9.

HOLDEN COMEDY CO.
On Monday night, December 31st, the Holden Comedy Company will return to the Grand Opera House for one week, in a repertoire of new plays, songs and dances. On Monday night they will present the comedy drama "Dad's Girl," with little De Lorne in the title role. For New Year's matinee they will present "A Hoop of Gold, or the Story of a Wedding Ring." Monday night 30c will admit one gentleman and lady, or two ladies to a reserved seat if purchased before 6 p. m. Monday. Seats now on sale at the box office. Prices, 10c, 20c and 30c.

"FAUST" TO-NIGHT.
The attraction at the Grand to-night will be an elaborate scenic and dramatic revival of Goethe's immortal masterpiece, "Faust," interpreted by that sterling actor Lewis Morrison, and an excellent supporting company. Mr. Morrison will, of course, be seen in his well known impersonation of "Mephisto," a character to which he is well adapted, and one which he can be said to be peculiarly his own. It is promised that the scenic effects of the production will be of a novel nature, and include a number of electrical and calcium light surprises. The most startling scene will be the famous "Brocken," in which a very vivid representation of the nether regions is given in a manner said to rival a conception of Dante. There are other scenes as given in this production which are also remarkable for the way they are put upon the stage. The company engaged for Mr. Morrison is a very superior organization of metropolitan artists. It is headed by Miss Florence Roberts, an accomplished and handsome young actress, who will appear as the hapless young heroine of the story. The part of "Faust" is given to Edward Elster. Others in the cast are Joseph Callahan, L. J. Hall, Walter Pennington, Margaret Ryan, Mrs. Nelson, Kneass and Lillian Armsby. A number of musical selections of a classical nature will be introduced, and a male quartette, who are said to be very superior, will be one of the features of the production.

Sad Railway Accident.
Fort Hope, Dec. 28.—Beverly Ross, of the Niagara Falls & Queenstown Electric Railway, who is spending his Christmas holidays at home here, was last night acting a young lady friend off on the Eastern Express, and remained talking till the train began to move, when he jumped off. It was dark, and as he walked forward he tripped over the bar of the switch and fell headlong. His left arm went on the rail, and two wheels of the last Pullman passed over it. The arm had to be amputated about two inches below the elbow.

A Niagara Man's Death.
Vassar, Mich., December 28.—George Palmer and his wife were found this morning with their throats cut lying dead on the floor. The couple had not lived happily, and it is believed that Palmer killed the woman and then cut his own throat. The Palmers lived on a farm a few miles from the village of Millington. It is thought Palmer was insane.

Harmed a Sioux Indian.
Deadwood, S. D., Dec. 28.—Two sticks, the Sioux Indian, sentenced for a leading part in the murder of four cowboys on Feb. 4, 1894, was hanged at 10 a. m. today by U. S. Marshal Miller in the presence of 50 people. Four other Indians were engaged in the massacre. One of these was killed by a pursuing posse, and the others are now serving sentences in the penitentiary.

Triplets—A Parson's Luck.
Cusnovia, Mich., Dec. 27.—The Methodist pastor of this village does not know whether he is pleased or not over his Christmas present—or rather presents—for there were three of them. His wife gave him triplets.

DISTRICT NEWS.

—Mr. J. W. Drake, of Windsor, says that he will be in the field against Mayor Beattie or anybody else.

—W. Nesbitt, of Leamington, while attending a funeral recently, fell from his rig and fractured his shoulder blade.

—Rev. H. D. Steele, who has been pastor of the Episcopal congregation of Kitchener for the past five years, will remove to Wallaceburg in a few weeks' time.

—John Hardman received a preliminary hearing at Stratford yesterday afternoon, and was committed for trial on a charge of shooting S. A. Cameron with intent to kill.

—Rev. Mr. Hind, of Windsor, has received a letter from Toronto containing a sum of money, which the writer asked to be divided between Mrs. Lindsay and Mrs. Truskey.

—Fred, a little son of Mr. Henry James, Minto, was amusing himself on a horizontal bar in his father's stable the other day, when he accidentally fell and fractured one of his legs.

—A committee has arranged for the special evangelistic services to commence next Sabbath morning in the Baptist Church, Blenheim, under the direction of Messrs. Brown and Wolfsohn.

—Joseph Bergey, the son of most respectable parents, was arrested by Chief Winterhill Thursday evening while in the act of stealing two large albums from in front of J. P. Stainman's store in Berlin. He was remanded until 4th January.

—Frank McLay, a young man who worked in Messrs. Lott & Sundry's livery at Wingham for some time last summer, was arrested in Guelph a short time ago, for stealing a horse and rig from a Brussels livery man, and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

—The Chatham Athletic Association has disposed of their brick building on King street—the old malt house—to a syndicate composed of Messrs. W. Ball, S. J. Sutherland, Chas. Hadley, D. Glass and N. H. Stevens. The property has a frontage of 170 feet and the price paid was $1,850.

—Mr. Jacob S. Crothers, who was for many years in the confectionery business in Belleville, fell dead in his dwelling from heart disease on Wednesday. The deceased was about 46 years of age, and leaves a widow and family of five.

—The new Methodist Church at Heald, was opened on Sunday last. Rev. Dr. Williamson, of Ingersoll, preached in the morning and evening, and Rev. Dr. Cook, of Granton, in the afternoon. During the day the sum of $2,240 was raised by subscriptions, which places the church out of debt and $340 to spare.

—Chief of Police Young, of Chatham, brought John Campbell, the lad who stole the proceeds of newspaper sales from his employer, from Windsor the other night. On Thursday Judge Houston sentenced him to six months in the Central, where he had been a guest before. Campbell broke down upon receiving his sentence.

—A little daughter of Mr. J. E. Johnson, a Chatham grocer, was operated on Wednesday at St. Joseph's Hospital for diphtheria with the anti-toxin serum recently procured through the good offices of Col. Bishop, United States Consul. The results, in a very bad case, are highly satisfactory to the attending physicians.

—The residence of Bowen Lucas, Esq., of Florence, was the scene of a fashionable event on the evening of Christmas Day, the occasion being the marriage of his only daughter, Miss Mary, to James H. Smith, M. A., science master of the College Institute, Ridgeway. The bride was attended by Miss Dora Davidson, of London, while Mr. H. W. Lake, of the Molsons Bank, Ridgeway, accompanied the groom. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. J. E. Holmes in the presence of invited guests from London, Ridgeway, Dresden and Florence. Hosts of friends will join in congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Ridgeway.

—A case of some interest to farmers having apples to sell was heard at the Division Court in Watford last week before Judge Wm. Elliot, of London. A Warwick farmer named John Rundle sued Dodds & Keller, apple buyers, for the value of a number of barrels of apples. Defendants claimed apples were frozen in the orchard. Plaintiff claimed that the apples should have been picked earlier in the season. Judgment for defendants. Mr. Patterson also sued to recover for apples delivered, but which defendants refused to receive on account of the fruit being frozen. Judgment for defendants.

—A Christmas service was held in St. James' Church, St. Mary's, Tuesday morning, attended by a good sized congregation. The singing by a full choir was good and in his sermon from the words "Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift," the Rev. Mr. Taylor warmly thanked his congregation for their many tokens of kindness received from them this Christmas and for the life-size portrait of himself that they had that morning given to his family. He also thanked the King's Daughters for the beautiful holy table that they had just presented to the church. The edifice is most beautifully decorated for the Christmas season. The offertory, a most liberal one, of the day was presented to the rector.—St. Mary's Journal.

—A very happy event occurred at the residence of Mr. James Rowntree, of the third concession of Westminster, on Christmas day, being the marriage of his eldest daughter, Bertha, to Frederick H. Traver, also of Westminster. The bride was attended in a handsome suit of state-colored satin cloth, trimmed with cream lace, wearing a bouquet of cream roses, and was supported by her cousin, Miss Susie Culver, of Delaware, and the groom by Mr. James Rowntree, brother of the bride. The ceremony was performed by R. V. M. Jackson, Belmont. An unusually large array of guests was basted upon the young couple as sovereigns of the nuptial event. The newly wedded pair left for the Forest City shortly after the ceremony: thence they proceeded to Niagara Falls, Buffalo and Perry, N. Y.—Com.

—Election favorable to the return of Mr. J. W. Little as Mayor for 1895 are asked to attend a meeting this (Saturday) evening at No. 260 Dundas street, his Committee Rooms. All are invited to be present who can see their way clear to assist Mr. Little's candidature and will be welcomed.

—Col. Smith, D. A. G., was in St. Mary's the other day and transferred the stores of No. 3 Company, 28th Battalion, from Capt. and Brevet Major Moscrop to Capt. D. W. Jameson, who takes over the company. Major Moscrop becomes Junior Major on the 28th.

—A lady writes:—"I was enabled to remove the corns, root and branch, by the use of Rollo-way's Corn Cure." Others who have tried it have the same experience.
