or the First of the control of the c These are the prospects for Esquimaltin which Victoria must of necessity share—and pleasan prospects they are. The present government realized the fact that the eventual return upon drydock construction would not at all compensate for an outlay of capital far too excessive in one direction for such a young country; and in handing the work over to the federal government they fostered an interest in the town and harboy on the part of the Dominion which otherwise that government would not so practically have displayed. Just conjure up a vision of the work on the drydock being continued under the Walken Beaves policy by unpaid day Plabor, dragging its alow laught towns.
