LORD LORNE'S SUCCESSOR

THE HERO OF TEL EL KEHIB COMING TO CANADA.

As Governor-General-Anath... Piece of Jingoism-Goin' to Put Some Tone Into We Poor Colonists at Last.

We have good authority for stating that the British government has decided to give Lord Garnet Wolseley a relaxation from his police duties, and send him out as governor-general to Canada for the next term.

It is really of little consequence whom they send out to govern Canada, and we do not see, since we are to pay the money to an impertinent, why it should not be Wolseley as well as anybody else, though we do not see why it should be anyone else-it doesn't matter who-as well as Wolseley.

The appointment of Lord Lorne was only a matter of time, and the real intention was an expedition against the world for the good of their heads and stayed there for a few months when they first set out, but for a long time they have not been seen anywhere about this country. It is understood, though vaguely, that they are wintering somewhere about the Bermudas. If then Sir Garnet is to be appointed, why send him but why not let him go on with his police duties in England? With his military commander here can keep the country from going to pieces in his name.

We do not know how long the country will submit to this sort of honor of sending strangers over here from England and ought to be able to stomach Canadianism, and what in the name of all that is wonderful is to be accomplished by sending the terrible warrior here? It would be like capturing some terrifying animal and locking him up in a cage at the capital. We do not anticipate war from any quarter in which the Great Policeman would render himself terrible. The latest accounts from Antioch describe the inhabitants as peaceably disposed, and though the Indians have been heard from, we do not believe we have much to fear. When they could be rendered himself terrible? Not at the council board, for there he would be reduced to an infant. This Jingo dream is a puzzle!

Philadelphia Merchant's Defalcation. John Landenberg, a Philadelphia merchant, let that city some time ago on account of large defalcations in business. His father-in-law, Mr P. P. Easting, a Philadelphia furniture manufacturer, was let in for $100,000 by Landenberg. The latter came to Toronto and remained for some time at the American hotel. While here he wrote to his wife saying that he was about to take his own life. The fugitive told his wife to have the letter printed in the Philadelphia papers. The letter was given to Charles Landenberg, brother of John's, and he showed it to the Philadelphia detectives to see if it would be of any use to them. He was told by them that they would take charge of it, and by them advised not to let the newspapers know anything about the letter having been received. It was several days before the fact leaked out. When it became known that Landenberg was in Toronto a good deal of telegraphing took place between the two cities. How to utilize the second party, that they believe that Landenberg had contemplated suicide. When he left Toronto to his whereabouts became unknown.

THE PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS.

THE HERO OF TEL EL KEHIB COMING TO CANADA.

We do not know that the date for holding the Ontario election has been exactly fixed, but from all we can learn we should judge that on or about March 4 would be a likely day.

A Quiet Day in the House-Several Bills. Yesterday was a quiet day in the local assembly. When the speaker took the chair at 3.30 there were very few members in the house, many of them having been delayed in returning to the city after their Sunday visit home by the late trains. Those that were there, however, got through considerable amount of business. A number of public and private bills were read second and third times. The house in committee spent over three hours in passing a second reading of Mr Mowat's bill to consolidate the several municipalities. This is a very important measure. It amends many of the old municipal acts and consolidates them into a single act. Mr Meredith moved for an order of the house for a return of all applications made by any railway company for a subsidy or grant in aid of a railway from Muskoka to Saint Marie granted by the act 44 Vic, cap. 23, and all correspondence with reference to such application or appropriation of such grants. The motion carried and the house adjourned at 9.30.

As They Affect the Diocese of Toronto-Report of the Commission of Enquiry. When the local legislature opened yesterday afternoon Speaker Clarke informed the house that the clerk had received from Judges S. Patterson and F. Oler, the commissioners of estate bills, their report on the bill to amend the synod and rectory sales act affecting the diocese of Toronto. The report was read by the clerk as follows: "We have perused bill (No. 25), entitled 'An act to amend the synod and rectory sales act affecting the diocese of Toronto.' The preamble recites that the incorporation of the diocese of Toronto, by its petition, represented that it desired to enable them effectually to execute the rights, powers, duties and trusts conferred upon and reposed in them by the act 41 Vic, chap. 69, and the several acts and parts of acts dealt with or referred to in that act, it is desirable and necessary that the said bill should be amended by inserting therein and affecting by the said acts, and that the same lands should be vested in the said incorporated synod, and that the further provisions should be made in regard thereto.

"We do not find any acts, or part of acts, conferring upon the said synod, or upon any, any rights, powers, duties or trusts, or touching any lands in the diocese of Toronto, as expressly referred to in the act 41 Vic, chap. 69, and are therefore unable to amend the reference to such acts, and parts of acts, in the preamble, and in some sections of the bill. If the bill should pass into a law, it should be amended by mentioning specifically whatever acts, or parts of acts, are meant to be referred to. Assuming the preamble to be intended only to refer to the act 41 Vic, chap. 69, and any others specifically mentioned, and to point to the necessary amendments to be made in the nature of an act, supplementary to those mentioned, for the purpose of enabling the synod or corporation under the terms of the existing acts, to carry out their objects and intentions, it would, in our opinion, be reasonable that, if such necessity is proved to the satisfaction of the house, a bill for the required purpose should pass into a law.

"But we are unable to say whether or not the provisions of the bill submitted to us are proper for carrying that purpose into effect, because we do not mean the means of carrying that purpose into effect, and referred to in sections 1 and 2, are the same lands to which the act 41 Vic, chap. 69, applies, which we understand to be those referred to in the rectory act of 1869, 29 and 30 Vic, chap. 16, sec. 1 and 6, or whether the terms of the proposed act may not embrace other lands.

"If other lands are intended to be embraced, we do not think there are sufficient facts stated in the preamble to enable us, acting as commissioners of estate bills, to form an opinion as to whether or not it is reasonable that the bill should pass into a law.

MONTREAL'S CARNIVAL.

THE ICE PALACE A VAST HALL OF GLASS AND DIAMONDS.

Great influx of visitors-Preparation for the Entertainment of Distinguished Guests. (Special to The World.) MONTREAL, Jan 22.-The carnival promises to be successful beyond the most sanguine hopes. On Saturday and Sunday morning heavy rain fell, and the question every one asked was, will it destroy the ice palace? Fortunately a cold wave, which has been hovering around the eastern shore of the St. Lawrence, struck the city, and the thermometer fell below zero last night. The rain which fell on the ice palace being frozen, helped to cement the blocks and make them firm. The ice palace is a feature of the carnival long to be remembered. It is built of blocks of ice from the St. Lawrence as clear as crystal. In the centre rises a huge tower, and round it in each corner a smaller one, being composed of evergreens at the top. The blocks of ice under the electric light resemble huge diamonds. The hall lights are filling up rapidly, nearly all the visitors are subscribing annually.

The Rawbison Gun and Manufacturing company have given a handsome gold medal and a pair of silver-plated Climax skates as prizes to be skated for. The lieutenant-governor, mayors, aldermen and other distinguished persons from sister cities will be entertained at a grand dinner. Already the hotels are being filled with visitors, mostly from the south-east. The evening banquet will be an exciting feature of the event, as between forty and fifty clubs from all points, including several American cities, will unite in the contest.

THE LOCAL ELECTIONS. Nomination of a Reform Candidate for North Essex. BELLS RING, Ont., Jan 22.-At the reform convention held at Bells River, Mr. Thos. Plant, reeve of Madoc and warden of Essex, received the unanimous nomination as reform candidate for North Essex. The reformer's meeting was an exciting feature of the event, as between forty and fifty clubs from all points, including several American cities, will unite in the contest.

WHERE ARE THOSE MEDALS? (To the Editor of The World.) Sir: Some four years ago the Ontario government promised a gold medal annually as a prize to the most successful student in the Ontario Art school. This gold medal has now been won at least three times, and I think, but am not sure, four times, and at each annual gathering of the school the minister of education or his deputy has presented with a lot of flourish among other prizes a leather case supposed to contain the gold medal; I say supposed, because up to date, nobody has ever seen or heard of it. I may admit there is to be such a beautiful design that the medal winner should be treated to do them justice, so of course a London maker was to get the job at least under the terms of the contract which exists of ever obtaining a prize that ought to have been handed over four years ago to the student who has at the miserable hawking which has been displayed. This fall the winners of prizes in a local show having preferred medals to money prizes, their request was granted, and in one month they had their medals. Now, it seems just a little strange that the medals of a show can have medals struck and delivered in one month and the Ontario government cannot do it in four years. It is possible that the government of Mr. Mowat has been engaged the last few years squandering English pounds in hunting up and Canadian money in hunting up English professors to the exclusion of our own native ones to find they are really unable to attend to their legitimate business or fulfil their obligations?

Mr. Bengough's Lecture. There was a very full audience last evening at the Royal opera house to enjoy Mr. J. W. Bengough's entertainment entitled "Caricature, the Funny Art." Mr. Bengough has gained such fame by his talented and humorous lightning sketches that an extended criticism at this late date is unnecessary and uncalled for. It is sufficient, therefore, to say that everybody present thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment. That each sketch was cleverly and rapidly executed, was instantaneous and recognized and called forth enthusiastic applause beyond producing such amusement as is usual consisted of the leading lights of the rival political parties and the most prominent characters in local matters.

The Ministerial Meeting. The Ministerial association met yesterday forenoon at St. Andrew's hall, the president in the chair. The meeting was opened with the reading of scriptures by the president Mr. McGregor leading in prayer. There was a good attendance. It was suggested by Rev H. D. Powis that persons conducting services at the Mercer reformatory should not urge the Roman Catholicism to attend the services. A letter was read from Mr. Samuel Roberts, hon. secretary of the Prisoners' Aid association, asking the Ministerial association to consider its financial claims. Rev Mr. Harris and Mr. Simpson moved that the communication be on the table till next meeting. Mr. Holmes of the College street Baptist church and Rev Mr. Rice were elected members of the association. Rev. High Johnston was then called upon to introduce the subject for the morning, viz: "How to utilize the second party, that they believe that Landenberg had contemplated suicide. When he left Toronto to his whereabouts became unknown."

GERHARDT GOES.

Freddie ignores the Reporter and Leaves His Divinity.

St. Louis, Jan. 22.-Mrs Langry left for Memphis last night. During the evening Cunningham sent Fred Gerhardt a note asking him to grant an interview and telling him he was unnamed. Gerhardt, instead of answering Cunningham, placed himself under the protection of the police and took the train for New York. Cunningham had bought tickets for himself and three friends, intending to follow Gerhardt to Memphis.

GENERAL AMERICA. Proposed Re-establishment of the Confederation-Fatal Bull Fight. PANAMA, Jan. 6.-The re-establishment of the Central American confederation is attracting attention in all the five republics. The idea is warmly supported, but cannot be peacefully carried out until there is a better means of communication among New Year's was celebrated by bull fighting, when the bulls killed two men and dangerously wounded seven others.

THE FALLS IN WINTER GARB. A Rush of Ice Seen Considerable Damage-The Bridge Two Hundred Feet Thick in Places. NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Jan 22.-Early this morning the high wind and water drove immense quantities of ice over the Falls almost completely filling the gorge below. The ice bridge is over a hundred feet thick in places. It is thrown up along the shore, destroying houses and other property and doing several thousand dollars worth of damage. Two hundred feet of the inclined railway building and the magnificent observation and dressing rooms below the bank are crushed.

TRAIN ROBBERIES AT WORK. Attack on a Central Pacific Train-Nervous of the Express Passengers. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.-Early this morning eight to twelve mounted men rode to Menlo station on the Central Pacific railway, seized two white and half a dozen Chinese section men, robbed them of all valuables and locked them up in the tank house. They then awaited the arrival of the east bound express. Two highway men jumped the engine, overpowered the engineer and fireman, and seized the train. The remainder of the gang seized the trainmen, robbed them in the tank house, and then they returned. They also attacked the express car, but were met by a rapid fire from the engine. Thirty shots were exchanged, the finding the resistance more spirited than they expected, and fearing a demonstration by the passengers they fled. No one is known to be hurt. The express car was smashed in the ways to get in the doors and built a fire under the car. The express messenger, Ross, got out, and Ross was badly wounded in the hand. The robbers got $10. Twenty men have left Elise in a special to track them.

LEGISLATION AND BONA PARTIES. Proceedings Against the Posting of Manifestos-Weakness on the House-Resolution of Deputies to Make Room for the Reform. PARIS, Jan 22.-During the annual services for the repose of the soul of Louis XVI a unusually large body of police was posted outside the expiatory chapel in readiness to suppress any demonstration. The weakness on the house is due to large forces, owing to an apprehended ministerial crisis. In the senate to-day M Waddington declared the republic was threatened by nobody and had nothing to fear except the faults itself committed. It is stated the Elysee quarter was patrolled last night because it was feared a legitimist manifesto would be posted. Three Bonapartists members of the chamber have decided to resign after the liberation or expulsion of Prince Jerome in order to allow him to contest the election. In the chamber of deputies Dornano questioned the government in regard to the removal of Prince Napoleon's manifesto and the violation of the press law. The minister replied that the judge acted in free exercise of his discretion when he dissolved the Chamber of Deputies. The Chamber passed to the order of the day by a vote of 400 to 88.

A Friend of the Negro. WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.-A resolution thanking J. P. Slater in the name of the people of the United States and authorizing the striking of a gold medal to be presented to him on account of his bequest of a million dollars for "improving the lately emancipated population of the southern states and their posterity by conferring on them the blessing of education," was reported favorably to the senate to-day from the committee on education and labor. Two Claims to One Wife. STRATFORD, Jan 22.-A few years ago a man left his wife here and was not heard of. Afterward she was wooed and won by another man who was well-to-do, and they have lived together happily ever since. The other day the former father and husband created consternation by quietly walking in and claiming his wife who faints. The first husband will endeavor to make good his claim.

THE INDICTED IRISHMEN.

POSSIBILITIES OF BRINGING THE PHOENIX PARK MURDERS TO JUSTICE.

Committal of the Editor of United Irishman-A Letter from the Pope to Cardinal McCabe-Two More Arrests. LONDON, Jan 22.-A Dublin despatch says although a wide belief exists that the authorities will now be able to bring the Phoenix park assassins to justice, the real facts of the case are such that the "inner circle" was so composed that its members were unknown to each other and therefore cannot be identified, it is only too well founded. At the adjourned examination of the accused conspirators next Saturday a list of government officials whose murder was arranged will be produced. DUBLIN, Jan. 22.-O'Brien, editor of United Irishman, charged with sedition libel, has been committed for trial at the next session of the special commission. He has been bailed.

The pope in a letter to Cardinal McCabe, of which copies have been sent to all the Irish bishops, congratulates them on their zeal in eliminating the country and guiding the people. He regrets that people have not ceased to trust to deeds of crime, but seeks remedies which lead to destruction. The faithful people should be firmly persuaded that the national cause should be kept distinct from the dead. He suggests that these unwholesome associations, meetings that leave to attend those of the clergy in whose wisdom the bishops have special confidence, as able to give all excited assembly and defend the most judicious courses. The clergy thus constituted the foremost of public security and defenders of the common weal will be of great utility to the country in its disturbed state.

Further arrests were made this morning in connection with the conspiracy to murder officials. It is believed the most important particulars will not be revealed by the officials. LIMERICK, Jan. 22.-The authorities have information of the existence here of a conspiracy connected with the inner circle in Dublin. He claims that it was found in his pocket by an unknown party, who found it on the street.

RAILWAY NOTES. The earnings of the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba railway for the 2nd week of 1883 were $25,000 over the corresponding period of last year. If the Canada Southern railway get the charter for the new bridge at the Falls Church, the earnings next month as anticipated is expected cars will be run across it before the close of the present year. There has been some correspondence going on between the Grand Trunk and Dr Chamberlain of Leamington, regarding the building of a branch connecting Leamington with that road. It is understood the Grand Trunk offers to build the road and operate it if a satisfactory bonus is guaranteed not making any money till the work has been completed. Return of combined traffic over the Northern & Northwestern railways for week ending Jan 15, 1883, and the corresponding week of 1882.

Decrease..... 1,561 87 Mr E. Tiffin, general freight agent of the Credit Valley railway, who has been so dangerously ill since last morning, has somewhat improved the last two days. George W. Ushing, superintendent of the Northern Pacific railway, arrived in Chicago recently, and stated that only three hundred miles remained to be laid to complete the main line of that road. At present thirteen thousand men were at work on the road, of which number eight thousand were Chinamen employed on the western divisions. The Yellowstone park branch, from Livingston south, was completed early in June, October 1, 1882, and the date fixed for the road to be completed by trains running from St. Paul to Fort Snare.

The annual meeting of the London & Port Stanley railroads took place at London on Saturday. The annual report stated that the board appointed a committee to confer with London and St Thomas in arranging for the issue of $305,945 mortgage bonds, to cover the debt of the company, but that the municipalities mentioned had not supplied the necessary forms, so that no progress had been made in the matter. Directors were then chosen as follows: Messrs James Egan, J. M. Cousins, W. P. Street, R. Pritchard, John Elliott, Chas. Stiff, Joseph Hickson, James Barber, John Johnson. Mr James Egan was unanimously re-elected president, and Dr Cousins, of St Thomas, vice-president. A committee was appointed to arrange for the mortgage bonds. REP. BY POP. From the Hamilton Spectator. Let us take the two cities and compare them with some rural constituencies. The public will then be able to judge of the injustice done these cities in not giving them a larger voice in the provincial council:
