But ball league for the coming season?" was let there be no misunderstandings about this asked Mr. Julius Cæsar Conner, whose superintendent can be readily admitted. But let there be no misunderstandings about this frutter. Wherever the institution is established it must be in reality an isolation hospital, not alone for diphtheria, but also foreven more malignant disorders, such assmall-pox and cholera. On the other hand do not try to make people believe that the original outlay will be less under the new idea than under the old. The sum proposed to be spent by last year's committee was $4000. If a separate building is erected in keeping with the other structures on hospital square $4000 would not put up the walls. There is no use talking nebulously about this question. The board has to come down to clear statements. Will the hospital trust allow the erection of an isolation hospital for low the erection of an isolation hospital for the reception of all malignant contagious diseases on its grounds? If so, what will be the cost of such a building? At 17 he began the work which was last evening brought to a close. From the time when he made his first formal address at Feversham—he was then a mere lad—he had been the fidol of the multitude. It may be difficult to analyze his popularity, but it remained steadfast and unshaken to the end. One secret of his vast influence lay in the fact that there was no thunder and hightning in his sermons. They had none of the pyrotechnic element in them. They were simple, kindly, encouraging and absolutely honest.
