

Pointers, challenge dogs, 55 lbs. and over Leamington Pointer Kennels' Count Graph
 1. Open class dogs, 55 lbs. and over Leamington Pointer Kennels' Banner
 Leamington Pointer Kennels' Boxer 2. Car
 dian Pointer Kennels' Donovan 3. W. Ston Capt. Brewer V.H.C. Open class bitches, lbs. and over—T. G. Davey's Josie Breat
 Leamington Pointer Kennels' Fame Graph
 2. Sam Holmes' Spotted Girl 3. Challenge dogs, under 55 lbs.—L. A. Biddle's Glam our 1. Challenge bitches, under 50 lbs.
 T. G. Davey's Lady Gay Spanker
 Leamington Pointer Kennels' T. G. Davey
 Ridgeview Comet 1. J. H. Winslow's Adm
 2. A. J. Davey's Beppo's Boy 3. Le amington Pointer Kennels' Beppo Graph
 V.H.C. Open class, bitches, under 50 lbs.

wheeled riders, and his only aim has been to place on the market carts more durable and more reliable than the bulk of buggy-like vehicles that have been manufactured and sold. He has at last succeeded in manufacturing a vehicle that contains all those requirements. These carts are patented in Canada, United States and Britain, and are the best of those famous carts is found at the western entrance to the Carriage Building. Mr. Ramsay is personally in charge of it.

-----

For Those Haters of Hearing.

If your hearing has been impaired in any way be sure and get one of Wilson's Common Sense Ear Drums. It is an entirely new invention and is altogether different from any other device in the world for the relief of performance takes place in the evening.

Notes.

Robert Riley and William Patterson, both of 126 Claremont-street, attempted to get into the grounds without the preliminary formality of purchasing a ticket. P.C. Dodge objected, whereupon the two men grew abusive. They finally got into the grounds but it was to go to a cell in the Police Station.

While the crowd was pouring out of the grand stand yesterday afternoon Mr. Fowler, who was standing on a chair, was knocked down. She was rendered insensible and was taken to her home in the ambulance.

Tact.

"Look at that dark man across by the punch-bowl!" said one lady to another at an assemblage of newspaper men; "he has taken twelve glasses of punch, one after another!" "Ah, indeed!" said the other drily; "that is my husband." But the woman was born to tact and luck. "Is it possible? Let me congratulate you, lucky woman, for having a husband able to drink twelve glasses of punch without getting tipsy. Why, if my husband drinks two, he gets simply roaring. You fortunate thing, how I envy you!"—Boston Gazette.

which is fastened with a padlock upon which his name and address is engraved. General Sickles perhaps has had more souvenir presents given him by his feminine friends than any other New York man. Among these presents are a couple of bracelets. He denies wearing them, though, and says that they grace only their cases in his bureau. General Hamilton, despite his age, wears a bracelet. It is made from the gold of one of his first wife's pieces of jewelry, and has her initials entwined with his own upon it. The general never goes without this circlet.—Chicago Tribune

7 and 9 King-street, East of 10th-street.