

nwp

970-85

P928s

THE ALPHABET

As suggested in "Powell's Introduction."

a - as in far	p - p
ă - " " what	q - a guttural, similar to ch in German ich ā - " " cat	r - r
â - " " law	s - as in sauce ai - " " pine	t - t
au - " " out	u - oo
b - b	ũ - " " pull
c - sh	ü - " " German kühl shape lips to say oo, but say ee ç - th " " thin	û - as in but d - d	v - v
e - " " they	w - " " wish
ě - " " then	x - a very deep guttural like the Arabic ghain f - f	y - as in you
g - g	z - " " zone
h - " " he	dj - j " " judge i - " " pique	hw - wh " " when ĩ - " " pick	hy - hu " " hue
j - z " " azure	ly - lli " " million k - k	fig - " " finger
l - l—note, not ěl	ny - ni " " onion m - m	tc - ch " " church
n - n
ñ - ng o - as in note
ô - similar to a short ou

(1.) Prolongation of vowel is marked thus +, a + &c.

(2.) Aspirated sounds thus—b' d'

(3.) Exploded sounds or hiatus—b' d'

NOTE.—Several of the above sounds are not used by the Barclay Sound tribes.

MEMO.—In the native, the parts within brackets indicate dialectic differences.