

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE COURT AND TIMES
OF
WILLIAM III. AND QUEEN ANNE.

ILLUSTRATED IN A SERIES OF LETTERS ADDRESSED TO THE DUKE OF SHREWSBURY,

BY JAMES VERNON, Esq., Secretary of State.

Edited, with Introduction and Notes, by G. P. R. JAMES, Esq.

Author of "Richelieu, &c.

3 vols. 8vo., with Portraits, 42s. bound.

"We do not know that, upon the whole, there has ever been published at one time, and from the pen of one man, a more interesting and important collection of letters than those now before us. When it is recollected that the leading spirits of this day, and especially of this immediate period, included among them Godolphin, Harley, Marlborough, Sunderland, Bath, Monmouth, Wharton, and a host of others of the two still bitterly opposing parties of William and James, and that Vernon, from his peculiar position, came more or less into contact with them all, we need not seek to aggrandize the interest and value of the publication. We cannot better close our notice of this highly interesting and important work, than in the words of its able editor, Mr. James, the popular novelist and historian. "These letters are a treasury of facts, some trivial, some remarkable; but as a whole, displaying the manners of the age; the secret conduct of celebrated men; the passions, the faults, the follies, the wisdom, the power, the magnanimity of those we have been accustomed to look up to; the tortuous path of political intrigue; the secret motive of grand actions; the small springs of great events; and the foundation, development, and completion of institutions which affect our liberty and happiness even in the present day."—Naval and Military Gazette.
