

The Contents.

- Pontique, other Isles of Châmetly, Massaclan, Rosario, R. Saint Jago, Santa Pecaque, Isles of Santa Maria, Valderas, and Cape Corrientes again. 237.
- X. He stands over the Southern Ocean for the East Indies, and arrives at Guam, one of the Ladrone Isles. 279.
- XI. His arrival at Mindanao, one of the Philippine Islands: and of its Natural State. 305.
- XII. The Political State of Mindanao. 324.
- XIII. Occurrences during the Authors stay at Mindanao. 337.
- XIV. He departs towards Manila, in the Isle of Luconia; touching at Bat Island, and the Isle of Mindora, and leaving Luconia, he goes to Pulo Condore, on the Coast of Cambodia, to Pulo Uby, in the Bay of Siam, and to Pulo Condore again. 375.
- XV. He goes to the I. of St. John on the Coast of China, to the Isles Piscadores near Formosa; and the Balhee, or 5 Islands, between Formosa and Luconia, called Orange, Monmouth, Grafton, Balhee, and Goat Isles. 403.
- XVI. He Coasts along the East side of Luconia, Mindanao, and other of the Philippines: and touching at the I. Celebes, and Callafufung in the I. of Bouton, he arrives at New Holland. 441.
- XVII. He goes thence, touches at the I. Triste, and another; and steering along the West Coast of Sumatra, arrives at the I. of Nicobar, where he stays a-shore, and the Ship departs. 471.
- XVIII. He stands over from thence in an open Boat to Passange Jonca; and thence to Achin; and after several Travverses comesto Bencouli; all on the I. of Sumatra. 491.
- XIX. He Ships himself for England, and arrives at the Cape of Good Hope. 521.
- XX. His departure thence to the I. Santa Hellena, and Arrival in the Downs. 537.