

INDEX TO CHAPTERS

	Page
CHAPTER I. — Montreal under French Rule	5
CHAPTER II. — Montreal under early British Rule	23
CHAPTER III. — Modern Montreal	33
CHAPTER IV. — Catholic Institutions	43
CHAPTER V. — Protestant Institutions	51
CHAPTER VI. — The Chief Buildings	61
CHAPTER VII. — The Squares and Parks	77
CHAPTER VIII. — Sports and Pastimes	87
CHAPTER IX. — Fishing and Shooting	97
CHAPTER X. — The Environs of Montreal	105
CHAPTER XI. — The Northern Vicinity of Montreal	125
CHAPTER XII. — The Southern Vicinity of Montreal	139

INDEX TO ILLUSTRATIONS

A Winter's Night View of Montreal (full page in colour)	Frontispiece
---	--------------

CHAPTER I.

	Page
Early Indian Life	5
Monument to Jacques Cartier, in Saint-Henri	6
An Early Settlers' Clearing	6
The Landing-place of Maisonneuve	7
Seminary of St. Sulpice	7
Nunnery of the Congrégation de Notre-Dame	8
Fort de la Montagne	8
Old Notre-Dame Church, on Place d'Armes (1651)	9
Old Seminary Towers	10
Old Farm Houses, outside the town limits, on the Côte-des-Neiges Road, dating back to 1692	10
Arrival of a King's Ship at Montreal	11
A Rich Merchant's Residence, 27 St. Jean-Baptiste Street, built in 1655	12
An Old House on St. Gabriel Street, built in 1688	13
Corner House on St. Vincent Street, erected 1676	13
Old St. Amable Street (a fashionable quarter during the French Régime)	14
St. Vincent Street, laid out in 1689	15
The Chapel of Notre-Dame-des-Victoires, erected in 1718	16
The Old Grey Nunnery, on McGill Street	16
St. Gabriel Farm-house, on the river bank, Point St. Charles (owned by the Congrégation de Notre-Dame), erected 1662	17
Nunnery, on St. Paul's Island, erected in 1764	17
"La Friponne," the French Government Warehouse, in which many of Bigot's frauds were perpetrated; erected 1693	18
Montreal at the date of British Conquest	20
Plan of the Town of Montreal, in 1760	21
Residence of Colonel John Campbell, built in 1773	22
De Catalogne House, erected in 1693	22
An old house on Vaudreuil street, built about 1687	22
An old building, St. Gabriel street, dating back to 1687	22