Messrs. JOHN R. & W. L. REID,

Managers, Sun Life of Canada.

Gentlemen,—I have yours of to-day advising me of the great business done by your Company in the year just closed. As a policyholder in the Company and as a Canadian, I am glad and proud of the Sun Life's success. And as a friend of the members of your firm, I am glad to believe that you have done your share toward the dazzling total of the year's business.

I know that the management of the Sun Life of Canada takes a broad view of life assurance and a public-spirited interest in the welfare of the business as a whole. I am delighted that in the expression of their views at this juncture they will speak with the moral force of a great year's business completed and a mighty progressive and prosperous Company.

"Nothing succeeds like success."
Long may you shine!

Yours very sincerely,
A. C. CAMPBELL.
