LESSON 10.]

BARTIMEUS HEALED.

[DEC. 9.]

Mark 10. 46-52.

GOLDEN TEXT.—Lord, that I might receive my sight.—Mark 10. 51.

MEMORY VERSES, 50-52.—And he, casting away his garment, rose and came to Jesus.

And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

To the folks at home: Please help the little folks to learn this lesson.

LESSON STORY.

After Jesus left the young ruler he went across the river Jordan and walked toward the city of Jericho. But he did not go away from people who needed his help.

Sitting by the wayside near Jericho was a poor blind man. His name was Bartimeus. He could not work because he was blind, and in those days blind people were not taught to do anything. All he could do was beg. He had heard of Jesus, and now when he knew that he was really coming along the way the blind man called aloud to Jesus to have mercy on him. And did Jesus hear? Think of this: never yet has one truly called upon him for help that he has not heard and answered. Learn from the last verse what the blind man did when he was healed.
