TORONTO TOPICS.

From our Regular Correspondent

The King's Birthday was not well observed in Toronto. Nearly all of us were at work as usual.

Mr. Dickard took advantage of the King's Birthday to visit his parents at Mount Forest.

The Briden Club has not been re-organized as yet. The trouble is, we cannot get a suitable room in a suitable locality. When a room is secured things will be humming as of yore. The executive committee are leaving nothing undone to make the club more successful this year than last.

Mr. Syrian Pottit, of Fruitland, paid our city a visit on the 16th ult. The only change noticeable about him is he is getting shorter and more stout in appearance.

Messrs. J. A. Isbister and W. R. Watt, of Hamilton, were in the city over Sunday recently. They are always welcome visitors.

A rumor is current in the city to the effect that our population will be increased shortly. Hope it will be so, as there is plenty of room for more.

Mr. J. Crough had his knee burned by some molten ore a short time ago. Despite the pain it has been causing him he stuck to his work. At the time of writing his knee has nearly completely healed.

Cassio Fraser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Fraser, had the misfortune to fall off a chair and break her arm in two places on the 7th ult. The bone was also badly bent. She was taken to Grace Hospital, where her injury was attended to, and she is now doing as well as can be expected. We hope to see little Cassio around as usual soon.

Answers to the circulars sent out announcing the date and programme of the Bible Conference are arriving by every mail. Indications point to a fairly large attendance. Friends who propose coming to attend the meetings will be met at the station, and directed to their stopping place by the committee in charge. This will remove any inconspicuous strangers to the city may be subject to. Mr. Wm. O'Rourke spent a few days visiting friends in the north country recently.

Miss Anna May Alencor, who graduated from your school last June, has secured a good position with the Gleadine Co., salve manufacturers.

Our jokero—you know who they are—take advantage of those "greenies" lack of knowledge of tricks these days. A young man fresh from the shanties suffered at the hands of those world-to-humorists a few days ago, but fortunately he discovered the joke before he had committed himself. He was given a piece of paper on which was written "Please give bearer ten cents worth of liquor," and while putting his hand in his pocket for the money the joker substituted another piece of paper, which had the following "Please give bearer one hundred pounds of meat for ten cents." The shantymen (he is better known here by that name) took it to a drug store, and when he opened the store door he thought something was wrong and on reading it again he discovered the fun the boys were about to have with him.

LONDON NOTES.

From our own Correspondent.

Miss Flossie Gardiner, of Guelph, spent her holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Harper Cowan.

Mr. W. McKay, of Woodstock, is a frequent visitor to London and enjoys visiting his old friends, W. H. Gould and the Cowans.

Mr. J. Kochler, of Aylmer, has been in London lately.

Mr. Roderick McKenzie, the tallest and biggest deaf mute in Canada, being over seven feet tall and stout in proportion, was in Nowbury to see his deaf brother Kenneth, and he left there for Algoma on Tuesday last.

Miss Alice Gustin, who has been visiting her aunt in London, left for her home in Forest on the 15th ult.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Pincombe, of Poplar Hill, always welcome their friends to their cozy home. Mr. W. H. Gould and Miss Aggie Matheson, of Komoka, were their guests lately.

Our old friend, Archie V. Smith, formerly of Brantford, is the Toledo correspondent of the Deaf World, of Indianapolis. Archie is a good correspondent.

Miss Lillie Bryce has secured employment at Burdick's new waist factory on King St.
