The Publisher of this Paper

The Publisher of this Paper
Is authorized to make good any loss his readers may incur through misrepresentation in the advertisement of "Dr. Scott's Electric Brush," and one of these brushes has been supplied to him, that it may be exhibited in the office of the paper, where all who desire may see its beauty and try its merits. Furthermore, he has been requested to test it in every case of Headache and Neuralgia he may chance to meet, and if it fails to cure, within a few minutes, nine sufferers out of every ten, the advertisement will not be allowed to continue in this paper. We submit that this is fair advertising, and every person reading this may have a brush on trial, as is explained in the advertisement.

The following is a sample of one of the many flattering letters from Clergymen and Laymen, which Dr. Scott daily receives:

Laymen, which Dr. Scott daily receives:

11 WALNUT ST. EVANSULLE, IND.

Dear Sir: I say much pleased with your Dr. Scott's Electric Hair Brush. I have been a great sufferer from headache for many years. Nothing-that I have ever tried has given me the relief I find from this brush, and I feel that it has already paid for itself handsomely. (RRV.) J. QUINCY ADAMS, Pastor Walnut St. Presbyterian Church.
