Words of the Wise.

The grandest of all empires is to rule self.—Seneca.

A PERSON under the firm persuasion that he can command resources virtually has them.—Livy.

WHEN a man has no desire but to speak plain truth he may say a great deal in a very narrow space.—Steele.

BUT little evil would be done in the world if evil never could be done in the name of good.—Marie Eschenbach.

No one finds anything so easy or so difficult as in opposite moods he had expected to find it.—George MacDonald.

A WASTED life is one of the saddest of all things under the sun. Each has a life he improves or wastes: which is it, friend?

THE only riches that abide with us here and that can pass through the fire of death are riches toward God, a soul endowment.

THE living Christian, pure of heart and unspotted by the world, is the best preacher of the gospel in these days.—T. L. Cuyler.

A GREAT step is gained when a child has learned that there is no necessary connection between liking a thing and doing it.—Guesses at Truth.

THE fall of every nation can be as distinctly demonstrated the result of moral degradation as can any problem in mathematics be demonstrated.

If we take away from our thought of God our confidence in his love or power or truthfulness, what is there left to receive the name of God?—S. F. Smiley.

ALL impatience of monotony, all weariness of best things even, are but signs of the eternity of our nature, the broken human fashions of the divine everlastingness.—G. MacDonald.

PATIENCE strengthens the spirit, sweetens the temper, stifles anger, extinguishes envy, subdues pride; she bridges the tongue, refrains the hand, and tramples upon temptations.—Horne.

EVERY individual has the broadest opportunity to better his condition through industry and wise economy. He who wastes his time and earnings aimlessly cannot expect to rise; his own acts rivet him to a lower position.—Anon.

CALAMITY, burdens, cares, are healing medicines to a heart willing to be helped by them; despair is a poison which consumes vitality, destroys hope, saps the strength, and finally brings on the paralysis of moral death.—Anon.

—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a most valuable medicine for ladies of all ages who may be afflicted with any form of disease peculiar to the sex. Her Remedies are not only put up in liquid form but in Pills and Lozenges in which form they are securely sent through the mails.

In the Word of God alone are the promises that never fail, hopes that never disappoint. Here is that upon which we can lean when friends are gone, when health fades, and the last mile-stone of our earthly journey is past, and when death and judgment in all their appalling realities are close at hand.—G. Everard.

THE world cannot bury Christ. The earth is not deep enough for His tomb, the clouds are not wide enough for His winding sheet; He ascends into the heavens but the heavens cannot contain Him. He still lives in the Church which burns unconsumed with his love; in the truth that reflects His image; in the hearts which burn as he talks with them by the way.—Edward Thomson.

THERE are souls in the world who have the gift of finding joy everywhere, and of leaving it behind them when they go. Joy rushes from under their fingers, like jets of light. Their influence is an inevitable gladdening of the heart. It seems as if a shadow of God's own gift had passed upon them. They give light without meaning to shine. These bright hearts have a great work to do for God.—Faber.

If you are beginning to despair of ever emerging from the clouds that overshadow you, search your life for the sin that is devouring that immortal assurance of victory given to every soul that will serve God by obedience to his law; look for the causes of defeat not in your inheritance, nor in your surroundings, but in yourself. Victory lies within reach of every true life; at all costs set yourself to win it.—Anon.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, For Wasting, Delicate Children.

Dr. N. S. WANDER, of Des Moines, Iowa, says: "I have used Scott's Emulsion, and find it satisfactory in every respect. Children take it readily with excellent results."

Hardened Liver.

Five years ago I broke down with kidney and liver complaint and rheumatism. Since then I have been unable to be about at all. My liver became hard like wood; my limbs were puffed up and filled with water.

All the best physicians agreed that nothing could cure me. I resolved to try Hop Bitters; I have used seven bottles; the hardness has all gone from my liver, the swelling from my limbs, and it has worked a miracle in my case; otherwise I would have been now in my grave. J. W. MORRY, Buffalo, Oct. 1, 1881.

Poverty and Suffering.

"I was dragged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring.

I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I commenced using Hop Bitters, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have seen a sick day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost. I know it."—A WORKINGMAN.

None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label. Shun all the vile, poisonous stuff with "Hop" or "Hops" in their name.

I've never any pity for conceited people, because I think they carry their comfort with them.—George Eliot.

MODERN MAGIC.—The magical power over pain that Haged's Yellow Oil possesses, outvalues the marvels of ancient times. It acts in a natural manner to subdue inflammation; cures Rheumatism, Croup, Deafness, sore throat, and painful injuries.

PLAN your cooking so it will not interfere with other work. On washing and ironing days something which may be cooked in the oven, on baking days, that which may be cooked on the top of the stove.

The perfume of freshly-culled flowers is agreeable to every one, and so it is with the delightful fragrance of MURRAY & LANMAN'S Florida Water. None reject it, none dislike it. From the tropics to the frigid zone, it is the universal favorite on the handkerchief, at the toilet, and in the bath.
