CATARRH:

A NEW TREATMENT.

Perhaps the most extraordinary success that has been achieved in modern medicine has been attained by the Dixon treatment for Catarrh. Out of 2,000 patients treated during the past six months, fully ninety per cent. have been cured of this stubborn malady. This is none the less startling when it is remembered that not five per cent. of the patients presenting themselves to the regular practitioner are benefited, while the patent medicines and other advertised cures never record a cure at all. Starting from the claim now generally believed by the most scientific men that the disease is due to the presence of living parasites in the tissues, Mr. Dixon at once adapted his cure to their extermination; this accomplished, the Catarrh is practically cured, and the permanency is unquestioned, as cures effected by him four years ago are cures still. No one else has attempted to cure Catarrh in this manner, and no other treatment has ever cured Catarrh. The application of the remedy is simple and can be done at home, and the present season of the year is the most favourable for a speedy and permanent cure, the majority of cases being cured at one treatment. Sufferers should correspond with MESSRS. A. H. DIXON & SON, 305 King Street, west, Toronto, Canada and enclose stamp for their treatise on Catarrh.—Montreal Star

Scientific and Useful.

AID TO DIGESTION.—Those who would aid an impaired digestion may seek in certain foods, such as broths, stale bread, milk or coffee, taken a while before regular meals, efficient helps; while alcoholic drinks, and especially the sour wines, sugars, and others, may be not only of no use, but even actually prejudicial.

APPLE DUMPLINGS.—Make a crust as for pies. Pare and core the apples, then fill them with sugar and butter and roll each in a piece of crust sufficient to cover it well, folding it over neatly on the top. Bake in a well-buttered tin half an hour in a quick oven, or boil one hour tied up in separate cloths. Keep the water constantly boiling. To be eaten with hard and soft sauce.

FOR CANKER RASH.—Take one teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer in hot water, sweetened with syrup or sugar, three times a day, every other day, and a dose of castor oil on the alternate days.

MONT BLANC POTATO.—Instead of mashing boiled potatoes, whip light and dry with a wooden or silver fork. At this point begin to whip in a cupful of hot milk for a quart of mashed potato, and, when all is in, beat in the frothed whites of two eggs. Heap, conically, in a deep silver or stoneware dish; set in a quick oven until the surface hardens slightly. Withdraw before it catches a shade of brown, wash over lightly with butter and send to table.

STUFFED EGGS.—A perfect luncheon dish: Work four ounces of boiled or potted ham to a smooth paste; add a pinch of cayennes and a teaspoonful of anchovy paste. Hard-boil six eggs, when cold remove the shells; cut a thin slice off the large end of each; take out the yolks and put them in a mortar with a third of their bulk of table butter, a little salt and nutmeg; add the ham and very little hot soup or water; heat it gently; press the paste into the empty whites, arrange neatly on a dish, small end upwards; garnish liberally to hide the lower end, and serve.

THE most successful Hair Preparation in the market. If you are bald, if you have thin or gray hair, if you are troubled with falling out of the hair, or dandruff, don't fail to try a bottle of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the greatest discovery of the age. Sent to any address on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, or six for $5. Direct all communications to A. Dorenwend, sole manufacturers, 105 Yonge Street, Toronto, Canada.

RHUBARB MOULD.—This English recipe for rhubarb mould will be found very nice: Cut one quart of red rhubarb in small pieces; put in a covered saucepan and let it boil until it is reduced to a pulp. Dissolve half an ounce of gelatine in hot water and put it in the pan with the rhubarb, adding one pound of powdered sugar; boil fifteen minutes, flavouring with essence of lemon. Turn the rhubarb into a mould and let it stand until the next day. When needed for use, turn it into a glass dish and pour around it a boiled custard made of half a pint of milk, the yolks of two eggs, sugar to taste and flavoured with vanilla.

GEM PUDDINGS.—One cup of flour, pinch of salt, one cup of milk and one egg. Add the milk slowly to the flour, stirring until smooth. Beat the yolk separately and add to the flour and milk, or batter, then put in your white of the egg, beaten to a froth. Now bake at once—twenty minutes will usually bake them. For a sauce I take two great spoonfuls of sugar, piece of butter size of the yolk of an egg, and mix smoothly; add a teaspoonful of flour, have a cup of scalded milk, and pour the mixture into it, stirring all the time until smooth. Flavour with lemon or anything you like. For breakfast cakes, of course, are eaten hot with butter.

SPONGECAKE CREAM.—Take eight or ten small spongecakes, cut them in halves and place them at the bottom and round the sides of a glass dish, and pour over them a couple of tablespoonfuls of brandy mixed with the same quantity of sherry wine; then spread the slices of cake over with a layer of raspberry jelly or raspberry jam warmed and strained through a sieve. Over the jelly place another layer of the sliced spongecakes, and over these pour the mixture of brandy and sherry as before. Have ready made about three-quarters of a pint of cold, boiled custard, and just before serving pour it over the slices of cake, ornamenting the top with a few rings of candied fruit.

Consumption can be Cured.

Not by any secret remedy, but by proper, healthful exercise and the judicious use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites, containing the healing and strength-giving virtues of these two valuable specifics in their fullest form. Prescribed universally, by Physicians. Take no other.

THEY SAY

"LOVE LAUGHS AT LOCKSMITHS."

And we all know that a Million Combination Lock won't keep the average small boy in the house if there happens to be a Circus in town, or a favourable opportunity presents itself for fixing a tin pot attachment to an orphan dog's tail; but only give him one of the LIQUOR TEA CO.'S attractive Boy's Books, and the enthusiastic way in which he will whistle "Home, Sweet Home," and stay there to, is surprising.
