supervision of the Principal and Lecturers. On Fridays moot courts are held for the students of the second and third years respectively. They are presided over by the Principal or Lecturer, who states the case to be argued, and appoints two students on each side to argue it, of which notice is given one week before the day for argument. His decision is pronounced at the close of the argument or at the next moot court. At each lecture and moot court the attendance of students is carefully noted, and a record thereof kept. At the close of each term the Principal certifies to the Legal Education Committee the names of those students who appear by the record to have duly attended the lectures of that term. No student is to be certified as having duly attended the lectures unless he has attended at least five-sixths of the aggregate number of lectures, and at least four-fifths of the number of lectures on each subject delivered during the term and pertaining to his year. Two lectures (one hour) daily in each year of the course are delivered on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Printed schedules showing the days and hours of all the lecturers are distributed among the students at the commencement of the term. The fee for attendance for each term of the course is $25, payable in advance to the Sub-Treasurer, who is also the Secretary of the Law Society.

EXAMINATIONS.

Every applicant for admission to the Law Society, if not a graduate, must have passed an examination according to the curriculum prescribed by the Society, under the designation of "The Matriculation Curriculum." This examination is not held by the Society. The applicant must have passed some duly authorized examination, and have been enrolled as a matriculant of the University in Ontario, before he can be admitted to the Law Society. The three law examinations which every student and clerk must pass after his admission, viz., first intermediate, second intermediate, and final examinations, must, except in the case to be presently mentioned of those students and clerks who are wholly or partly exempt from attendance at the School, be passed at the Law School Examinations under the Law School Curriculum hereinafter printed, the first intermediate examination being passed at the close of the first, the second intermediate examination at the close of the second, and the final examination at the close of the third year of the School course respectively. The percentage of marks which must be obtained in order to pass an examination of the Law School is fifty-five per cent. of the aggregate number of marks obtainable, and twenty-nine per cent. of the marks obtainable upon each paper. Examinations are also held in the week commencing with the first Monday in September for those who were not entitled to present themselves for the earlier examination, or who, having presented themselves, failed in whole or in part.

Students whose attendance upon lectures has been allowed as sufficient, and who have failed at the May examinations, may present themselves at the September examinations, either in all the subjects or in those subjects only in which they failed to obtain fifty-five per cent. of the marks obtainable in such subjects. Those entitled, and desiring, to present themselves at the September examinations must give notice in writing to the Secretary of the Law Society at least two weeks prior to the time of such examinations, of their intention to present themselves, stating whether they intend to do so in all the subjects, or in those only in which they failed to obtain fifty-five per cent. of the marks obtainable, mentioning the names of such subjects. The time for holding the examinations at the close of the term of the Law School in any year may be varied from time to time by the Legal Education Committee, as occasion may require.

HONORS, SCHOLARSHIPS AND MEDALS.

The Law School examinations at the close of term include examinations for Honors in all the three years of the School course. Scholarships are offered for competition in connection with the first and second intermediate examinations, and medals in connection with the final examinations. An examination for Honors is held, and medals are offered in connection with the
