Iron Prices Rising.

The advancing tendency in all iron values is unchecked, the most important feature lately being the remarkable strength in steel billets at Pittsburg. A week ago these were quoted at $17.75, on Monday they had advanced to $22, and to-day another advance of 50c a ton was made, both in steel billets and Ressemer iron. As steel biliets constitute the basic raw material for various kinds of wire, material for various kinds of wire, wire mails, etc., their strength has an important bearing on local values. In fact, there has already been a rise of 25c to 30c per 100 lbs, in carbed wire, galvanized staples, plain wire, and wire nails, and this latest rise in billets may lead to still further gains in the above finished articles. The base price for barled wire Is now $2.55 here, for staples $2.90, for plain wire $2.00, and for wire nails $2.30, to,b. here.

Pig iron is also strong in tone, and no Scotch iron is now obtainable here, ox Scotch from is now obtainable here, ex yard untler $21 for round lots. Bar iron is firm, and so are all other leading lines of iron. In tanada sellers, while asking the same inside figure for round lots, are trying to obtain $2.25 for small quantities, and are also $2.20 for small quantities, and are also asking 10c advance for coke timulate, which they quote at $i to $3.15. Importers who tried to place orders for terms plates this week were asked an advance of 9d on previous quotations, and terms are held firm here at $6.25. The metals such as tin, copper, spelter, etc., rule steady.

Screws of all sorts have been advanced 5 per cent, on the entire list, and United States makers of coll chain have withdrawn prices. As a result have withdrawn prices. As a result of this news prices here on all sizes are 50e per 106 pounds higher than they were a week ago.—Montreal Gazette.
