Notes.

THE EUCHARISTIC SPECIES.

The greatest possible care should be taken that true bread and true wine are used in the celebration of the Eucharist. Wafer bread is lawful under the present rubric, and there is abundant evidence of its use in the reigns of Elizabeth and James I.; yet leavened bread is the rule all over the east, and the orthodox prelates, in their recent reply to Leo XIII, show a deep dislike (not to use a stronger expression) of unleavened bread. It is believed by some that the use of unleavened bread first began in Rome and its authority for leavened bread.
