

The Chancel Guild desires to thank the following contributors towards the Christmas decorations: Mrs. Kenrick, Mr. Kenrick, Miss Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Baldwin, Miss Boteler, Miss Morson, Miss Kenrick, Mr. Payne, and all others who helped by money or work.

Special preachers during the month have been the Rev. G. F. Davidson, R. J. Moore, E. C. Cayley and Provost of Trinity College.

Four missionary bales have been sent off from this Parish during the month. They contained besides much warm clothing many toys and dolls, and other delights for children. Two of the bales went to Algoma, one to the North-West, and one to Essonville in our own Diocese.

The last meeting of the Provost's Bible Class held in this Church was on December 18th. Henceforward it will meet in St. James' School House.

The Chancel Guild has fairly earned the most sincere thanks of those who come to the Daily Services. Some of the members gave up a good deal of time to work at the curtains in order that they might be up for the first week in Advent. They are a great improvement, and help to bring us all together as members of the one household.

The thanks of all who value the Daily Services are also due to those ladies who so willingly undertook the duties of Organist during Advent; viz., Miss Grace Boulton, Miss Hilda Boulton, Miss Lowe, Miss Madeline Cayley, and Miss Ethel Street. They were most faithful at their posts.

Mrs. Charles Ferguson and Miss Murray, we are glad to say, have undertaken to systematically visit the Infant Class.
