Brantford Ladies' College and Conservatory of Music.

In every department thoroughness is the aim, and therefore only experienced teachers are engaged.

The Course in English, Mathematics and Modern Languages conforms to that of Toronto University.

The Curriculum in Music corresponds to that of the Toronto Conservatories; while with equal advantages, the fees are so moderate as to enable students of limited means to secure a superior musical education.

Art, Elocution, Stenography, Type-Writing and Book-keeping, are also efficiently taught.

Under the careful supervision of the Lady Principal the Social and Religious life of the College is alike happy and elevating.
