CICERO AGAINST CATILINE.

FIRST ORATION. Edited with Notes and Vocabulary by J. E. WETHERELL, B.A., Principal of Strathroy Collegiate Institute. Price 50 Cents.

CÆSAR GALLIC WAR.

(BOOK I., CHAPS. 1-33.) With Notes and Vocabulary by Prof. J. E. Wells, M.A., Editor of "THE EDUCATIONAL JOURNAL," formerly Principal of Woodstock College. Price 50 Cents.

I CONSIDER Prof. Wells' Cæsar's Gallic War an excellent work both in form and in matter. I am in sympathy with the remarks contained in the Preface, and think the work admirably conforms to them.
R. V. FOWLER, M.A., Classical Master,
Perth Collegiate Institute.

I REGARD your edition of Gallic War a work of superior excellence. The typography of the Latin text especially is very distinct. The able and judicious notes and sketches render this work all that students require for this subject. I shall recommend it to my classes.
A. G. KNIGHT, M.A., Classical Master,
Campbellford Collegiate Institute.

I THINK Mr. Wells' Notes are concise and very helpful. He has effected well, in my opinion, what he in the Preface says is his aim, viz.: to give necessary, not unnecessary aid. He treats the subjunctive mood in a clear and exhaustive manner. The Vocabulary, too, is all that need be desired. I am exceedingly well pleased with it.

W. W. TAMBLYN, Classical Master,
Bowmanville Collegiate Institute.

I AM pleased with the admirable judgment displayed by the Editor in the substance of the Notes and in what is given on derivations in the Vocabulary. The typography of the book leaves nothing to be desired in that line.

O. J. JOLLIFFE, M.A., Classical Master,
Ottawa Collegiate Institute.

N.B.—The New Edition of Prof. Wells' Notes on Third Class Literature will be ready in a week or two. It will have an Appendix with Copious Notes on the New Lessons added for 1889.
