Counterfeiters at Work.

No medicine that is not of more CATHOLIC AND ROMAN CATHOLIC. By than ordinary merit suffers from imitations or substitutes. The fact that an imitation is offered is one of the strongest proofs of the excellent, qualities of the genuine article. The Dr. Williams Medicine Co. is continually trying to impress upon the public the fact that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are only sold in securely sealed boxes, the wrapper around which is printed in red ink and be ars the registered trade mark " Dr Williams Pink Pills for Pale People."

Notwithstanding this constant warning there are unscrupulous dealers here and there who defraud the Smith's Handbook for Students public by selling an imitation pill, (also colored pink) either by the dozen, hundred or by the ounce, alleging that they are "just as good," or "just the same" as the genuine Dr. Williams Pink Pills. This is a falsehood and the unscrapulous de der who offers the imitation knows it. but is more concerned for the extra profit he makes on the imitation than for the health of his unfortunate victim.

Will the public, in their own interest, bear in mind the following facts, -Dr. Williams Pink Pills are never sold by the dezen, hundred, or ounce. If any dealer offers you a pill in this form (no matter whether colored pink or not) he is trying to cheat you and should be avoided.

The formula of Dr. Williams Pink Pill is a secret and is known only to the company. Therefore if some dealer tells you a substitute is "just the same" or "just as good" he is simply trying to deceive you because there is a larger profit for him in selling the imitation.

When you ask for Dr. Williams Pink Pills see that the trade mark is on the wrapper of every package, and do not be persuaded to take anything else, no matter how plausable a story the dealer may tell. Imitations in medicine are always cheap, always worthless and often dangerous, and people who have a care for their health will always refuse them.

Dr. Williams Pink Pills cure when other medicines fail. That's why they are imitated, and that is why you should insist on getting the genuine. Used as a spring medicine Dr. Williams Pink Pills surpass all other medicines. If feeling "out of sorts" give them a trial.
